We who mystically represent the cherubim,
and who sing to the life-giving Trinity the thrice-holy hymn,
let us now lay aside, lay aside all earthly care...

Amen. ...that we may receive the King of all who comes in visibly upborne by the Angelic Hosts.

[At the conclusion of the Cherubic Hymn (before the Litany of the Anaphora), the choir sings Many years, master (once) as the bishop blesses the congregation.
Sing it straight, using the same note as the "ia" of the final Alleluia.]
