

My House Shall Be Called a House of Prayer

By Rosemary Shumski

My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations,
My house shall be called a house of prayer for everyone.
My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations.
My house shall be called a house of prayer, said God's son.

What would Jesus see if He came to us today?
Do we welcome others, or do we turn them away?
What would Jesus see if He came to us today?
Would He find our church is a holy place to pray?

My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations,
My house shall be called a house of prayer for everyone.
My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations.
My house shall be called a house of prayer, said God's son.
