

We Break Bread Together

By Rosemary Shumski

The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch,
Our Orthodox Church was built on Christ who is our Rock.
The disciples met together in fellowship and prayer.
They took care of one another, their possessions they would share.
And they broke bread together, bread together, they broke bread together,
In fellowship and prayer.
They broke bread together, bread together, they broke bread together,
The Eucharist they'd share.
The Eucharist they'd share.

Over two thousand years later, our Church still stands.
God protects and holds it in His hands.
We are Christ's disciples today,
Here to show others the Truth and Way.
And we break bread together, bread together, we break bread together,
In fellowship and prayer.
We break bread together, bread together, we break bread together,
The Eucharist we share.
The Eucharist we share.
The Eucharist we share.
