

January 17th - Anthony the Great - Stichera at the Aposticha at Vespers - 2 mak - ing man - i - fest that its might is in - vin - ci - ble.

thou didst find a clear pas - sage lead - ing up Heav - en - wards;
 of the wor - ship - ful Ho - ly Spir - it, O bless - ed one.

Gird - ing thy - self there-with, thou o - ver - cam - est all that re - ject there hast thou gained thine ev - er - last - ing por - tion, O blest of God, Where - fore, thou wast il - lu - mined and be - held - est the things to come,

Christ God's di - vine and most hon - ored ap - pear - ance as with the bod - i - less An - gels, thou now dost fore - tell - ing all things, since thou _____ wast taught by the un - to us in the flesh. To Him, right - eous Fa - ther, stand at the throne of Christ in great joy and glad - ness.

 shin - ings of light di - vine which Christ shone up - on _____ thee.

make en - treat - y that He grant_ His Great Mer - cy to our souls.
In - ter - cede with Him to grant His Great Mer - cy to our souls.
 In - ter - cede with Him to grant_ His Great Mer - cy to our souls.