

Glory - Tone 5

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - - - ly Spir - - - - - it.
Spring hath shown forth; come, let us be glad; the Res - ur - rec - tion of Christ hath oc - cured; come, let us re - joice for the me - mo - ri - al of the strug - gle - bear - ing one hath ap - peared un - to those who be - lieve.
Where - fore, O feast - lov - ers, let us cel - e - brate it mys - tic - ly; for this one, be'ng a good sol - dier, did pre - vail o - ver the u - surp - - - - ers and dis - ap - point them be - com - ing an em - u - la - tor of Christ in his Pas - sion, not pit - y - ing his earth - ly ves - sel.

Ra - ther did he leave it na - ked as brass, re - ward - ing it with tor - ments. Where - fore, let us lift our voic - es to him
cry - ing,
O strug - gle - bear - er, plead for the sal - va - tion of our souls.

Then sing "Both now" from the Pentecostarion.
