Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

O Lord, Thou didst reproach the Pharisee when he justified himself, boasting of his deeds; and justified the Publican when he approached humbly, seeking for forgiveness with sighs; for Thou dost not draw near to arrogant thoughts, nor...
turn away contrite hearts.

Wherefore, we also kneel before Thee meekly, O Thou Who didst suffer for our sakes. Grant us forgiveness and the Great Mercy.

Doxastikon at the Praises
Sunday of the Pharisee and Publican

Plagal fourth Mode

Glorify to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

O Lord, Thou didst reproach the Pharisee

when he justified himself, boasting of his deeds; and justified the Publican when he approached humbly, seeking...

ing forgiveness with sighs;

(ighs) for Thou dost not draw near to arrogant thoughts, nor turn away contrite hearts. Wherefore, we also kneel before Thee meekly,

O Thou Who didst suffer for our sakes.

Grant forgiveness and the Great Mercy.
