

Glory/Both now - Tone 4 - Slow

The musical notation consists of ten staves of Gregorian chant in G clef, common time. The lyrics are as follows:

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - it. Both now and ev - er, and un - to a - ges of a - ges. A - men.

When thou wast trans - lat - ed to him who _____ was born of thee in an in - ex - pli - ca - ble way, O

Vir - gin The - o - to - kos, there were pre - sent James, the broth - er of the Lord and first__ of the Chief Priests, and Pe - ter, the hon - ored head and lead - er of the - o - lo - gians, with the rest of the di - vine __ rank of A - pos - tles, clear - ly ut - ter - ing di - vine words, prais - ing the a - maz - ing di - vine mys - ter - y, the mys - ter - y of the dis - pen - sa - tion of Christ God, and with joy pre - par - ing thy bod - y which was the God-re - ceiv - ing o - rig - i na - tor of life,

O most glo - ri - fied one, while the most ho - ly and hon - ored an - gels looked from on high, struck with as - ton - ish - ment and sur - prise, and say - ing one to an - oth - er; Lift ye your gates and re - ceive ye the moth - er of the Mak - er of heav - en and earth.

Let us laud with songs of praise her sanc - - - ti - fied, no - ble bod - y which con - tained the Lord, in - vis - i - ble to us.
There - fore we, too, cel - e - - brate thy mem - o - ry, O all - praised one, cry - - - - ing; Ex - alt the state of Chris - tians and save our souls.