

Glo - - - - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - - - it.
As the birth-day of thē im - pu - dent Her - od was be - ing kept, thē ob - ject of the ter - ma - gant danc - er's oath was a - chieved; for the head of the Fore - run - ner was cut off and of - fered on a charg - er, as food for those re - clin - ing. What a loath - some ban - quet, re - plete with wick - ed - ness and hor - ri - ble mur - der. As for us, we bless the Bap - tiz - er, hon - or - ing him as is meet, for he is the great - est born of wom - - - an.