2) Thou truly wast a light of lights, a good train-er and lead-er of monks and nuns, O An-tho-ny, thou fair boast bod-ly, thou wast as in-cor-po-re-al and wast shown of the whole world, who as a val-iant gen-er-al to the whole world, God-bear-ing Fa-ther An-tho-ny, hast most brave-ly taught us all by thine own tri-umphs to as an ever-shin-ing light, and wast re-vealed un-to fear not the attacks of the de-mons all men as the boast of mon-as-tics, for thou hadst as de-fend-er the as-cet-ics’ adorn-ment, Christ, the de-stroy-er of er-ror.
and glo-ry of all the Fa-thers.

3) Since thou didst live the An-gels’ life, though thou war-est a
4) O thou good hope of all the world, Theotokos and Virgin, we ask for thine invincible help and shelter, O Lady, for we are seized and sore oppressed with afflictions, being tossed about by life's raging tempests. Calm the winds of the passions and allow us to enter the peaceful haven of God's will.
