1) Let no man ever disbelieve that Christ is truly risen; for unto Mary He appeared, bridegroom from the bridechamber coming forth, and later others saw Him as they went into the and hast both plundered Hades and smitten death with destruction; again to the eleven seated dissertation: now through Thy Mother's pleadings, do Thou send disciples, whom He sent forth to baptize; then, forth Thy light on us, Thy divine light enlightening our hearts and souls, light that guideth all in the way to -scend-ed, He thence confirmed the word they preached travel the paths of Thy divine commands, by multitudes of wonders.

and ways of peace forever.