

From the Octoechos
Fourth Eothinon
Exaposteilarion & Theotokion

Byzantine Mode 2
 Special Melody: Upon that mount in Galilee

1) In flash-ing light of vir - tues clad, let us be - hold the
 2) When Thou, O Lord, didst say:— Re - joice, Thou didst trans-form the young— men who, at that tomb— that bear - eth life, sor - row of our fore - fa - thers, in— its stead

ap - peared in flash - ing rai - ment un - to the myrrh - bear - ing bring - ing the world the glad - ness of Thine A - ris - ing— in wom - en who bowed their fac - es earth - ward; and let us glo - ry. Where - fore, through her— that bare— Thee, send forth to be— in - struct - ed of thē a - ris - ing— of Heav - en's Mas - us— the light— there-of, that bright light of— Thy mer - cies, light -

- ter and Lord— and with Pe - ter run to Life in— the
- ing our hearts,— so that we, O Life-giv - ing Lord, might

From the Octoechos - Fourth Eothinon - Exaposteilarion & Theotokion - 2

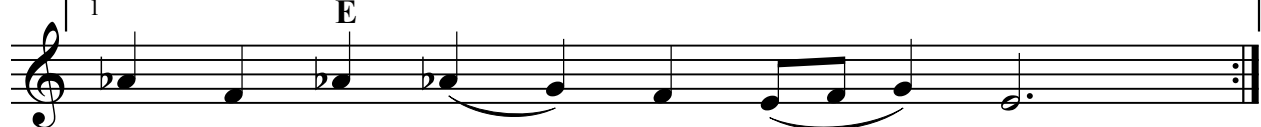

G

Lord's__ tomb; and won - d'ring at__ that which__ was wrought, cry__ out: O Friend of man,__ both God__ and man,

1

E

let us re - main__ to see__ Christ.

2

Un. rit. F G

glo - ry to Thine A - ris - - - ing.