G E

1) O Lord, as I now bring to mind the dread-ful day of

judg - ment and of Thy glo - ry past all speech,

E G

I quake in all my mem - bers, and sore - ly trem - bling, I

E G

cry out: When Thou shalt come in glo - ry on earth to judge all things, O Christ, O God, res - cue me al - so, wretch

that I am, out of ev - 'ry pun - ish - ment, pain, and

G

tor - ment, and deem me wor - thy then to stand

at Thy right hand, O Mas - ter.
