

Lenten Triodion
The Sunday of the Pharisee & Publican
Exaposteilarion & Theotokion

Byzantine Mode 2
 Special Melody: Upon that mount in Galilee

1) Let us flee from the Phar - i - see's ex - ceed - ing wick - ed
 2) The God of all things that ex - ist, the Mak - er of cre -

vaunt - ing but learn the low - ly Pub - li - can's
 - a - tion, took mor - tal flesh from thy pure womb, praise - wor - thy self - a - base - ment, that we may all be ex -

O all - hymned The - o - to - kos; and He made new and re -

- alt - ed with him to God ex - claim - ing: Be gra - cious
 - fash - ioned my whole cor - rupt - ed na - ture, and af - ter to Thy ser - vants, Thou Who wast born of a Vir - gin, O thou hadst giv - en birth He a - gain left thee as thou hadst

Sav - ior Christ, Who didst free - ly suf - fer the Cross with been be - fore; where - fore, moved with faith, we all sing thy

Lenten Triodion - Sunday of the Pharisee & Publican - Exaposteilarion & Theotokion - 2

pa - tience and hast raised up___ with might___ di - vine prais - es, while loud - ly cry - ing out:___ Re - joice,

1 Thy world to - geth - er with___ Thee.

2 thou glo - ry of the whole___ world.___
Un. rit. F G