HOLY SATURDAY MORNING

Priest:  Blessed is the Kingdom of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Reader:  Amen.  O Come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

O Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

O come, let us worship and fall down before the Very Christ, our King and our God.

PSALM 104 (103)

Bless the Lord, O my soul.  O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty.  Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain: Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: Who maketh the clouds his chariot: Who walketh upon the wings of the wind: Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire: Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed forever.  Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains. At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.  They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.  Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.  He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.  They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.  By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.  He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.  He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth: and wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man’s heart.  The trees of the Lord are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted; Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.  The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies. He appointed the moon for seasons: The sun knoweth his going down. Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth. The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God. The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens. Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping, innumerable, both small and great beasts. There go the ships: there is that leviathan, who thou hast made to play therein. These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season. That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust. Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth. The glory of the Lord shall endure forever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works. He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: He toucheth the hills, and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the Lord. Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord.

The sun knoweth his going down. Thou makest darkness, and it is night. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! In wisdom has thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to thee, O God. (Thrice)

O our God and our Hope, glory to Thee.
THE GREAT LITANY

(Respond to the following petitions alternately with “Lord, have mercy” #1, #2 and #3 as shown at the bottom of the next page. Use #4 for the final petition.)

PRIEST: In peace let us pray to the Lord.

For the peace from above, and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

For the peace of the whole world; for the good estate of the holy churches of God, and for the union of all men, let us pray to the Lord.

For this holy House, and for those who with faith, reverence, and fear of God enter therein, let us pray to the Lord.

For our father and Metropolitan N., for our Bishop N., for the venerable priesthood, the diaconate in Christ, for all the clergy and the people, let us pray to the Lord.

For the President of the United States (or: For Her Majesty, the Queen, for the Prime Minister of Canada), for all civil authorities, and for our Armed Forces everywhere, let us pray to the Lord.

For this city and for every city and land, and for the faithful who dwell therein, let us pray to the Lord.

For healthful seasons, for abundance of the fruits of the earth, and for peaceful times, let us pray to the Lord.

For travelers by sea, by land, and by air; for the sick and the suffering; for captives and their salvation, let us pray to the Lord.
Priest: For deliverance from all tribulation, wrath, danger, and necessity, let us pray to the Lord.

Help us; save us; have mercy on us; and keep us, O God, by thy grace.

Calling to remembrance our all-holy, immaculate, most blessed and glorious Lady Theotokos and ever-virgin Mary, with all the Saints, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Chanter: To thee O Lord.

Priest: For unto thee are due all glory, honor, and worship: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Chanter: Amen.
O Lord, I have cried out unto thee,
Hear me, O Lord. O Lord, I have cried out unto thee,
Hear thou me.

Give ear to the voice of my supplication,
When I cry out unto thee.

Hear thou me, O Lord.
Let my prayer be set forth before thee as the incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Hear thou me, O Lord.
Verse 1

Bring my soul out of prison that I may praise thy name.

Stichera 1

Accept our evening pray’rs, O holy Lord, and grant us remission of our sins, for thou alone hast made manifest the resurrection unto the world.

Verse 2

The righteous shall wait for me, until thou recom pense me.

Stichera 2

Encompass Zion, O ye people, and surround her;

give ye glory there in to him who arose from the dead; for he is our God who hath delivered us from our transgressions.

Verse 3

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.
Stichera 3

O come, ye people, let us praise Christ and bow down before him, glorifying his resurrection from the dead, for he is our God who hath delivered the world from the wiles of the enemy.

Verse 4

Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

By thy passion, O Christ, we have been set free from sufferings; and by thy resurrection we have been delivered from corruption;

O Lord, glory to thee.
If thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand, for with thee there is forgiveness.

Stichera 4

Today hath Hades sighed, crying, “It were better for me that I had not received the Begotten of Mary; for when he approached me, he loosed my pow’r and crushed my gates of brass, arousing the souls which I had possessed, he being God.”

Therefore, glory be to thy crucifixion and to thy resurrection, O Lord.

Verse 5

Because of thy name have I waited for thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

To-day hath hades sighed, crying, “It were better for me that I had not received the Begotten of Mary; for when he approached me, he loosed my pow’r and crushed my gates of brass, arousing the souls which I had possessed, he being God.”

Therefore, glory be to thy crucifixion and to thy resurrection, O Lord.

From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel trust in the Lord.
Stichera 6

To-day hath hades sighed, crying, "My power hath vanished, because I received a dead Man as one of the dead, but could not hold him completely. Rather, I lost with him those who were under my reign. From the beginning of time I have held control over the dead. But this One raised all." Wherefore, glory be to thy crucifixion and to thy resurrection, O Lord.

Verse 7

For with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is abundant redemption, and he will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Stichera 7

Today hath Hades sighed, crying, "My power hath been swallowed up; for the Shepherd, crucified, hath raised Adam; and those whom I had possessed I lost. Those whom I had swallowed by my might, I have given up completely; for the Crucified hath emptied the graves, and the might of death hath vanished." Wherefore, glory to thy cross, O Lord, and to thy resurrection.

THE OLD TESTAMENT READINGS

Priest: Wisdom.

Reader: The Reading is from the Book of Genesis

Priest: Let us attend.

Reader: (Genesis 1:1-13)

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
2 The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep;
and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.
3 And God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.
4 And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.
5 God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

6 And God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.”
7 And God made the firmament and separated the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament. And it was so.
8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

9 And God said, “Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so.
10 God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.
11 And God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, upon the earth.” And it was so.
12 The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.
13 And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

Chapter 1

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness has come up before me.” 3 But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god; and they threw the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep. 6 So the captain came and said to him, “What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call upon your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we do not perish.”

7 And they said to one another, “Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then they said to him, “Tell us, on whose account this evil has come upon us? What is your occupation? And whence do you come? What is your country? And of what people are you?” 9 And he said to them, “I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.” 10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, “What is this that you have done!” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?” For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 He said to them, “Take me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you.” 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. 14 Therefore they cried to the LORD, “We beseech thee, O LORD, let us not perish for this man’s life, and lay not on us innocent blood; for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.” 15 So they took up Jonah and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. 16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

17 And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Chapter 2

1 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish,
2 saying,
“I called to the LORD, out of my distress,
and he answered me;
out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and thou didst hear my voice. 3 For thou didst cast me into the deep,
into the heart of the seas,
and the flood was round about me;
all thy waves and thy billows passed over me. 4 Then I said, ‘I am cast out from thy presence;
how shall I again look upon thy holy temple?’ 5 The waters closed in over me,
the deep was round about me;
weeds were wrapped about my head
at the roots of the mountains.
I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me for ever;
yet thou didst bring up my life from the Pit,
O LORD my God. 7 When my soul fainted within me,
I remembered the LORD;
and my prayer came to thee,
into thy holy temple. 8 Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their true loyalty. 9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to thee;
what I have vowed I will pay.
Deliverance belongs to the LORD!” 10 And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

Chapter 3

1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,
2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.” 3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. 4 Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days’ journey in breadth. 4 Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s journey. And he cried, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!” 5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.

6 Then tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 And he made proclamation and published through Nineveh, “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, or drink water, 8 but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry mightily to God; yea, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence which is in his hands. 9 Who knows, God may yet repent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we perish not?”

10 When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

Chapter 4

1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. 2 And he prayed to the L ORD and said, “I pray thee, L ORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repentest of evil. 3 Therefore now, O L ORD, take my life from me, I beseech thee, for it is better for me to die than to live.” 4 And the L ORD said, “Do you do well to be angry?” 5 Then Jonah went out of the city and sat to the east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, till he should see what would become of the city.

6 And the L ORD God appointed a plant, and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the plant. 7 But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm which attacked the plant, so that it withered. 8 When the sun rose, God appointed a sultry east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah so that he was faint; and he asked that he might die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.” 9 But God said to Jonah, “Do you do well to be angry for the plant?” And he said, “I do well to be angry, angry enough to die.” 10 And the L ORD said, “You pity the plant, for which you did not labor, nor did you make it grow, which came into being in a night, and perished in a night. 11 And should not I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?”

Priest: Wisdom.

Reader: The Reading is from the Prophecy of Daniel.

Priest: Let us attend.

Reader: (Daniel 3:1-57)

1 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. 2 Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to assemble the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 3 Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, were assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 And the herald proclaimed aloud, “You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image which King Nebuchadnezzar has set up; 6 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace.” 7 Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and maliciously accused the Jews. 9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live for ever! 10 You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image; 11 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no heed to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up.”
13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well and good; but if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace; and who is the god that will deliver you out of my hands?”

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up.”

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He ordered the furnace heated seven times more than it was wont to be heated. 20 And he ordered certain mighty men of his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their mantles, their tunics, their hats, and their other garments, and they were cast into the burning fiery furnace. 22 Because the king’s order was strict and the furnace very hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell bound into the burning fiery furnace. 3 And they walked about in the midst of the flames, singing hymns to God and blessing the Lord. 2 Then Azariah stood and offered this prayer; in the midst of the fire he opened his mouth and said:

The Prayer of Azariah

3 “Blessed art thou, O Lord, God of our fathers, and worthy of praise; and thy name is glorified for ever. 4 For thou art just in all that thou hast done to us, and all thy works are true and thy ways right, and all thy judgments are truth. 5 Thou hast executed true judgments in all that thou hast brought upon us and upon Jerusalem, the holy city of our fathers, for in truth and justice thou hast brought all this upon us because of our sins. 6 For we have sinfully and lawlessly departed from thee, and have sinned in all things and have not obeyed thy commandments; 7 we have not observed them or done them, as thou hast commanded us that it might go well with us. 8 So all that thou hast brought upon us, and all that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgment. 9 Thou hast given us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hateful rebels, and to an unjust king, the most wicked in all the world. 10 And now we cannot open our mouths; shame and disgrace have befallen thy servants and worshipers. 11 For thy name’s sake do not give us up utterly, and do not break thy covenant, and do not withdraw thy mercy from us, for the sake of Abraham thy beloved and for the sake of Isaac thy servant and Israel thy holy one, to whom thou didst promise to make their descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as the sand on the shore of the sea. 14 For we, O Lord, have become fewer than any nation, and are brought low this day in all the world because of our sins. 15 And at this time there is no prince, or prophet, or leader, no burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, no place to make an offering before thee or to find mercy. 16 Yet with a contrite heart and a humble spirit may we be accepted, as though it were with burnt offerings of rams and bulls, and with tens of thousands of fat lambs; 17 such may our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and may we wholly follow thee, for there will be no shame for those who trust in thee. 18 And now with all our heart we follow thee, we fear thee and seek thy face. 19 Do not put us to shame, but deal with us in thy forbearance and in thy abundant mercy. 20 Deliver us in accordance with thy marvelous works, and give glory to thy name, O Lord! Let all who do harm to thy servants be put to shame; 21 let them be disgraced and deprived of all power and dominion, and let their strength be broken. 22 Let them know that thou art the Lord, the only God, glorious over the whole world.”
23 Now the king’s servants who threw them in did not cease feeding the furnace fires with naphtha, pitch, tow, and brush. 24 And the flame streamed out above the furnace forty-nine cubits, 25 and it broke through and burned those of the Chaldeans whom it caught about the furnace. 26 But the angel of the Lord came down into the furnace to be with Azariah and his companions, and drove the fiery flame out of the furnace, 27 and made the midst of the furnace like a moist whistling wind, so that the fire did not touch them at all or hurt or trouble them.

28 Then the three, as with one mouth, praised and glorified and blessed God in the furnace, saying:

The Hymn of the Three Youths

29 “Blessed art thou, O Lord, God of our fathers, and to be praised and highly exalted for ever;
30 And blessed is thy glorious, holy name and to be highly praised and highly exalted for ever;
31 Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holy glory and to be extolled and highly glorified for ever.
32 Blessed art thou, who sittest upon cherubim and lookest upon the deeps, and to be praised and highly exalted for ever.
33 Blessed art thou upon the throne of thy kingdom and to be extolled and highly exalted for ever.
34 Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven and to be sung and glorified for ever.\(^4\)

Brethren:
Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.
For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.
We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the sinful body might be destroyed; and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.
For he who has died is freed from sin.
But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.
For we know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.
The death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.
So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.
1. God hath stood in the congregations of gods, and being in the midst of them he judgesth gods.

2. How long will you judge unjustly; and accept the persons of the wicked?

3. Judge the needy and the fatherless. Do justice to the humble and the poor.

4. Rescue the poor; and deliver the needy out of the hand of the sinner.

5. They have not known or understood; they walk on in darkness. All the foundations of the earth shall be moved.

6. I have said; you are gods and all sons of the most High. But you, like men, shall die; and shall fall like one of the princes.

Priest: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Glory to thee O Lord, glory to thee.

Priest: Let us attend. (He then reads the Gospel: Matthew 28:1-20), after which the choir sings:

Glory to thee, O Lord, glory to thee.

Priest: Help us; save us; have mercy on us; and keep us, O God, by thy grace. Wisdom!

That guarded always by thy might we may ascribe glory unto thee: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

(The choir then continues with "Amen," and the Cherubic Hymn, "Let all mortal flesh keep silence . . .")
Slowly

Ison

Amen. Let all mortal flesh keep silence and in fear and trembling stand, pondering nothing earthly minded. For the King of kings and the Lord of lords cometh forth to the faithful. Before him go the ranks of angels, with all the principalities and powers; the cherubim full of eyes and the six-winged seraphim. Amen.
Covering their faces and chanting:

their hymn: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

NOTE: In some traditions, the Great Entrance for this service is done in silence. Therefore, there would be no petitions and no "Amen" in the middle of the hymn. The chanter would simply pause after "... six-winged seraphim ..." for the procession, and continue with "Covering their faces ..." as the priest is entering the altar at the end of the procession.
Sing the proper response for each petition given:

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Grant this, O Lord.

Grant this, O Lord. Grant this, O Lord.

To thee, O Lord. Amen. And to thy spirit.

Priest: Let us love one another, that with one accord we may confess:

Tone 8

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit: the Trinity, one in essence and undivided.

Priest: The Doors! The Doors! In Wisdom let us attend.

(The Creed is now recited by the congregation.)
Priest: Let us stand aright. Let us stand with fear. Let us attend, that we may offer the holy oblation in peace.

A mercy of peace, a sacrifice of praise.

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God the Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And with thy spirit.

Priest: Let us lift up our hearts.

We lift them up unto the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks unto the Lord.

It is meet and right to worship Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the Trinity, one in essence, and undivided.
Priest: Singing the Triumphal Hymn, shouting, proclaiming and saying:

Slowly

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Priest: Take, eat: this is my Body which is broken for you, for the remission of sins.

Priest: Drink ye all of this: this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we give thanks unto thee, O Lord, and we pray unto thee, O our God.
Priest: Especially our all-holy, immaculate, most blessed and glorious Lady Theotokos and ever-virgin Mary.

Chant like the Epistle (with ison mostly on C, changing to F as the end of each phrase ends on F.)

In the rejoiceth, O full of grace, all creation:

the angelic hosts, and the race of men;

O hallowed temple and supersonal Paradise, glory of Virgins, of whom God was incarnate and became, a little child, even our God who is before all the ages.

For he made thy womb a throne, and thy body he made more spacious than the heavens.

In the rejoiceth, O full of grace, all creation: glory to thee.
Priest: Among the first be mindful, O Lord, of our Metropolitan N., whom do thou grant unto thy holy churches in peace, safety, honor, health, and length of days, and rightly dividing the word of thy truth.

And of all mankind.

Priest: And grant us with one mouth and one heart to glorify and praise thine all-honourable and majestic name: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Amen.

Priest: And the mercies of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ be with you all.

And with thy spirit.

Priest: And vouchsafe, O Lord, that with boldness and without condemnation we may dare to call upon thee, the heavenly God, as Father, and to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy Name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Amen.

Priest: Peace be to all.

Priest: Let us bow our heads unto the Lord.

And to thy spirit. To thee, O Lord.

Priest: Through the grace and compassion and love toward man of thine Only-begotten Son, with whom thou art blessed, together with thine all-holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit: now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Amen.
Priest: Let us attend! Holy things are for the holy.

One is Holy, one is Lord, Jesus Christ, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

And the Lord was awakened, was awakened as one out of sleep, and arose as one delivered unto us.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Alleluia.
Receive Me Today

Receive me today, O Son of God, as a partaker of thy sacramental supper, for I shall not divulge thy mystery to thine enemies nor give thee a kiss like Judas, but Priest: With fear of God, and faith and love, draw near.

Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord; the Lord is God and hath revealed himself unto us.

Priest: Always, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Reader: Amen. Let our mouths be filled with thy praise, O Lord, that we may sing of thy glory: for thou hast permitted us to partake of thy holy, divine, immortal and life-giving Mysteries. Establish us in thy Sanctification, that all the day long we may meditate upon thy righteousness. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Priest: Attend! Having partaken of the divine, holy, immaculate, immortal, heavenly, life-giving and fearful Mysteries of Christ, let us worthily give thanks unto the Lord.

Priest: Help us; save us; have mercy on us; and keep us, O God, by thy grace.

Priest: Asking that the whole day may be perfect, holy, peaceful, and sinless, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Priest: For thou art our sanctification, and unto thee we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Amen.
Priest: Let us go forth in peace.

In the name of the Lord.

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O Lord, who blessest those who bless thee, . . . thanksgiving and worship: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Amen. Blessed be the name of the Lord, henceforth and for evermore.

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Priest: The blessing of the Lord and his mercy come upon you through his grace and love towards man, always: now and ever, and unto ages ages.

Amen.

THE DISMISSAL

Priest: Glory to thee, O Christ our God and our hope, glory to thee.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy.

Father, bless.

Master,
Priest: He who rose again from the dead, Christ our true God, through the intercessions of his all-immaculate and all-blameless holy Mother, by the might of the precious and life-giving Cross; by the protection of the honorable, Bodiless Powers of heaven; at the supplication of the honorable, glorious Prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John; of the holy, glorious, and all-laudable Apostles; of the holy, glorious and right-victorious Martyrs; of our venerable and God-bearing Fathers; of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna; of Saint(s) N. (NN) who memory we celebrate, and of all the Saints, have mercy upon us and save us, forasmuch as he is good and loveth mankind.

Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us and save us.
