

October 13th

St. Jacob of Hamatoura Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" (1st set)

(Byzantine notation begins after the 3rd page.)

Byzantine Chant Tone 8, Plagal Fourth Mode Special melody: What shall we now call thee

Chadi Karam

What shall we now call thee, O Saint of God? A man dwell-ing in the heav - ens or an an - gel on thē Earth? A re - cep - ta - cle for vir - tues or a spring of mir - a - cles? For thou__ didst a - maze all hu - mans and thē An - gels' hosts; from thee__ do all the de - mons trem - ble with fear; for thou, O Ja - cob, didst please the Lord in thy__ life and in thy mar - tyr - dom. In - ter - cede__ with__ Him, O fa - ther, that our souls__ be__ saved.

October 13th - Hieromartyr Jacob of Hamatoura - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" (1st set)

What shall we now call thee, O Saint of God? A great beam-ing lu - mi -

- nar - y that is tru - ly ra - di - ant? Or a ho - ly sac - ri - fice now be - ing of - fered un - to God? For thou, — by thy suf - fer - ings, didst con - quer suf - fer - ing and didst be - come like the Lord — in — His suf - fer - ings; and thou — didst as - cend to heav - en as a dwell - er — with thē An - gel - ic hosts. In - ter - cede — with — Him, O fa - ther, that our souls — be — saved.

October 13th - Hieromartyr Jacob of Hamatoura - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" (1st set)

An - gels were a - mazed by thy pa - tient soul, O Di - vine and bless - ed Ja - cob, O thou Mar - tyr of Christ God. Christ ac - cept - ed thee, O fa - ther, as a sac - ri - fice to Him. And in the clouds of glo - ry thou didst en - ter and a - bide. Thou didst re - ceive and ac - cept His o - ver - -flow - ing grace, and with thy per - se - ver - ance didst build up a great man - sion in the heav - ens. In - ter - cede with Him, O fa - ther, that our souls be saved.

PROSOMIA AT "O LORD, I HAVE CRIED" FOR THE FEAST OF ST. JACOB OF HAMATOURA

Plagal Fourth Mode

(Special melody: What shall we now call thee)

Ἦχος λ̣ π̣ δ̣ Νη

What shall we now call thee, O Saint of God? A man dwell- ing in the heav- ens or an an- gel on the earth? A re- cep- tacle for vir- tues or a spring of mir- a- cles? For thou __ didst a- maze all hu- mans and __ the An- gels' hosts; from thee __ do all the de- mons trem- - ble with fear; for thou, O Ja- - cob, didst please the Lord in thy life __ and in thy mar- tyr- dom. Inter- cede with __ Him, O fa- ther, that our souls __ be __ saved.

W^(N) hat shall we now call thee, O Saint of God? ^γ A great beam-ing lu- mi- nar- y, that is tru- ly ra- di- ant? ^γ Or a ho- ly sac- ri- fice now be- ing of- fered un- to God? ^γ For thou, ^(Π) by ^(N) thy suf- fer- ings, didst con- - quer suf- fer-ing ^γ and didst be- come like the Lord ^(Π) in ^γ His suf- fer- ings; ^γ and thou ^(N) didst as- cend to heav- - en ^Δ as a dwell- er ^(Π) with the An- gel- ic hosts. ^Δ ^(Δ) In- ter- cede with ^(Π) Him, O ^(N) fa- ther, that our souls ^(N) be ^γ saved. ^γ

A^(N) n- gels were a- mazed by thy pa- tient soul, ^γ O Di- vine and bless- ed Ja- cob, O thou Mar- tyr of Christ God. ^γ Christ ac- cepted thee, O fa- ther, as a sac- ri- fice to Him. ^(Π) And in the clouds of glo- ry thou didst en- ^γ ter and a- bide. ³ Thou didst re- ceive and ac- cept His o- - ver- flow- ing grace, ^γ and with thy per- se- ver-ance didst build up ^(Δ) a great man- sion in the heav- - ens. ^(Π) In- tercede with _ Him, O fa- ther, that our souls _ be _ saved. ^γ