The Lord cried out, saying: Whosoever wanteth to save his life shall lose it for My sake and for the gospel. He who believeth shall not taste death, for death hath been trampled by the life-giving Resurrection from the Master. Likewise, the blessed martyr Jacob held on to the Lord, and sacrificed himself with unwavering faith. Therefore, he inheriteth with Christ resurrection unto eternal life, and turneth to us with kindness, encouraging us in our contest, and granting us

many blessings.
When the Lord saw thy contest in the arena, O Father Jacob, He was pleased and bestowed up on thee from His glory.

Therefore, thy tongue was freed, defending the true faith and all things related to Christ God, the Master, fearing neither the torments nor the ferocity of thine opponents; but thou wast forgiving, for thy heart wast__ filled with the mer - cy____ of___ God,

Whom thou dost im - plore to____ en - light__

- en____ our____ souls.
October 13th
St. Jacob of Hamatoura
Third Litia Hymn

Byzantine Chant Tone 3
Third Mode

Chadi Karam

Original Arabic text by Fr. Panteleimon (Farah). Translation copyright © by Elio Nicolas and Chadi Karam. Metering and music arrangement by Chadi Karam. Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America, Rev. 1, 10/7/2020, CAH as the Spirit did to the three Children. Therefore, O Lord, accept my soul that is always seeking Thee, and gladden me with Thy light so I may shine with it and enlighten the way for my brethren.
The will of the Lord was fulfilled in thee, because thou didst partake in the grace and contest of the death and resurrection of the Holy Lord. Thou wast forgotten, but the Lord, at last, hath revealed thee to us as a type of the resurrection for the delight of the faithful and their spiritual comfort, and an espousal of the expected life, which we inherit by struggling with humility on earth.
The Litia
First Mode

The Lord cried out, saying: Who-sorrow want-eth to save his life shall lose it for My sake and for the gospel.

He who believeth shall not taste death, for death hath been trampled by the life-giving Resurrection of the Master. Likewise, the blessed martyr Jacob held onto the Lord and sacrificed himself with unwa-v-
Therefore, he inheriteth with Christ resurrection unto eternal life, and turneth to us with kindness, encouraging us in our contest, and granting us manifold blessings.
When the Lord saw thy contest in the arena, O Father Jacob, He was pleased and bestowed up on thee from His glory. Therefore, thy tongue was freed, defending the true faith and all things related to Christ God, the Master, fearing neither the tortures nor the ferocity of thine opponents; but thou wast forgiving, for thy heart wast filled with the mercy of God, Whom thou dost implore to enlighten our souls.

The Liturgy

Third Mode

Feast of Saint Jacob of Hamatoura – Vespers – Litia, Tone 3

The angelic chant, ing that cometh from the mouth of the Lord, praiseth the eous materia...

The fire is not burning me to...
as the Spirit did to the three Children. Therefore, O Lord, accept my soul that is always seeking Thee, and glad-den me with Thy light so I may shine with it and en-lighten the way for my brethren.
The Litia

Fourth Mode

Ἐξάπειρος Πάσχα

The will of the Lord was fulfilled in thee, because thou didst partake in the grace of the test of the death and Resurrection of the Holy Lord. Thou wast forgotten, but the Lord, at last, hath revealed thee to us as a type of the Resurrection for the delight of the faithful and their spiritual comfort, and an espousal... al of the expected life, which we inherit by struggling with humility on earth.