

Ode 1 D

Of old the di - vine__ Mos - es fore - shad - owed thy

Cross, pass - ing Is - ra - el a - cross the Red__ Sea when he struck the moist el - e - ment with his__ rod, sing - ing to thee, O Christ God, a song of ex - o - dus.

Ode 3 D

O Christ Mas - ter, es - tab - lish me by thy

Cross on the rock of faith, lest my heart be shak - en by th

im - pacts of th ar - ro - gant en - e - my; for thou__ a - lone art ho - - ly.

Ode 4 D

When the great - er lu - mi - nar - y be -

- held__ thee sus - pend - ed on the Cross, O might - y One, he trem - bled and, draw - ing in his rays, hid them. And the whole of cre - a - tion praised thy long - suf - fer - ing; for th earth was filled with thy praise.

Ode 5

D

To thee, O Sav - iour of the world, do we tra - vel ear - ly, prais - ing thee, hav - ing found safe - ty in thy Cross, through which thou didst re - new man - kind and led us to the nev - er - set - ting light.

Ode 6

Jon - ah the Proph - - - et fore - shad - owed thy di - vine Cross, when he stretched out his hands in the bel - ly of the whale, and sprang out,
saved from the beast by thy might, O Word.

Ode 7

He who de - liv - ered the three youths from the flames came to earth, tak - ing a bod - y, and was nailed to the Cross, free - ly grant - ing us sal - va - tion,

he who a - lone is bless - ed, tran - scen - dent in glo - ry,

the God of our Fa - - thers.

Ode 8

We praise, we bless, and we wor - ship the Lord.

When Dan - iel, the great a - mong Proph - ets, was thrown of old in - to the den of li - ons, and stretched out his hands in the shape of a Cross, he es -

-caped from their rav'n - ing with - out hurt, bless - ing Christ

God un - to all th a - ges.
