

Sunday of the Prodigal Son

Katavasiae of the Canon

Byzantine Tone 6

Arr. Basil Kazan

1. O my soul, take up the Song of Mo - ses and cry out, say - ing,

"A help and ref - uge hath He be - come to me for sal - va - tion.

This is my — God, and I will glo - ri - fy — Him."

3. O God, Hus - band - man of be - nev - o - lenc - es and Plant - er of good things, make my bar - ren mind fruit - ful, for the com - pas - sion of thy mer - cies.

4. When the Proph - et fore - saw thy Na - tiv - i - ty from the Vir - gin, he pro - claimed, cry - ing, "I have heard thy hear - ing and feared; for, O Christ, thou didst come from Ti - man, from a ho - ly and shad - ow - y moun - tain.

5. When night passed, day broke, and light shone up - on the world. Where-fore, the ranks of an - gels praise thee, O Christ God, and glo-ri - fy___ thee.

6. I am en - com-passed in the deep of sins, O Sav - ior, and drowned in the tem-pest of this life. But as thou didst raise Jo - nah from the bel - ly of the whale, so draw me out of pas - sion, and save me.

7. Veri - ly, the youths em-u - lat - ed the cher-u-bim, ex - chang - ing glad tid - ings in the fur-nace, cry - ing, "Bless - ed art thou, O God; for in jus - tice and truth thou brought-est all___ this up-on___ us for our sins, O thou who art ex - ceed - ing-ly praised and glo-ri - fied un - to the end of all___ ag - es."

We praise, we bless, and we wor - ship the Lord.

8. Bless Him who of old traced for Mos - es the won - der of the Vir - gin, in the bush in the Mount of Si - nai. Praise Him and ex - alt Him yet more un - to all ag - es.

The Magnificat with its verses, and then:

9. Who of the ter - res - tri - als ev - er heard or be - held such a thing: a Vir - gin found with child in the womb, who gave birth to a child with - out tra - vail? This then is the won - der which hath been ful - filled in thee; and, O un - de - filed Mar - y, the

The - o - to - kos, we mag - ni - fy thee.