To all the Choir Directors, Choir Members, Chanters, and those who are interested in Church Music

Beloved in Christ:

It is with thankfulness to God that we welcome this electronic version of the Kazan Menaion project thoroughly compiled and digitized by Mr. Christopher Holwey, the former chairman of the Department of Sacred Music.

In this electronic, online version, many of the typos and mistakes have been corrected from the original printings. This platform will also make it very easy when modified and corrected translations are made by our Department of Translations as we work to bring uniformity to our texts and service books. Therefore, we wholeheartedly encourage all of our parishes to use this online version of the Kazan Menaion and check it regularly for updates.

We are grateful to Mr. Christopher Holwey for the countless hours he spent on digitizing this project originally produced by the late protopsaltis, Mr. Basil Kazan.

Wishing you and your loved ones all of God's blessings, I remain,

Your Father in Christ,

+JOSEPH

To all who read these letters

GREETINGS IN THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

We are indeed pleased to introduce to you these volumes of hymnographic selections from The Menaion which constitute the latest addition to the liturgical music series The Byzantine Project of the Archdiocesan Department of Sacred Music. The purpose of The Byzantine Project is to make available in the English language and western musical notation treasures of traditional Byzantine chant. Other works in this series include the hymnography of Saturday evening Vespers in the eight tones (in a single volume, published 1974), Sunday morning Matins in the eight tones (in a single volume, published 1976), the major services of Holy Week (in two volumes, published 1979), the major services from The Pentecostarion (in three volumes, published 1983), and the major services from The Triodion (in two volumes, published 1991).

We take this opportunity to convey our heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Basil Kazan of Brooklyn, New York (noted Byzantine chanter and musicologist who worked as the transcriber and arranger) and Mr. Raymond George of Detroit, Michigan (gifted choir master and chairman of the Department of Sacred Music who worked as the publisher).

These volumes of hymnographic selections from The Menaion (Byzantine Project Number Six) are hereby approved and authorized for use in the parishes of the Archdiocese.

INFORMATION ON THE "MENAION"

This publication has been assembled in the best possible way as to expedite its use with a minimum of confusion. This Menaion has been compiled by the month, making it easier to locate what ever you want without difficulty. It begins in the month of September which is the beginning of the Church Calendar Year.

This publication must be used in conjunction with the "MATINS" and the "VESPER SERVICE BOOK" of the Byzantine Project. In addition you will find throughout some hymns from the Divine Liturgy.

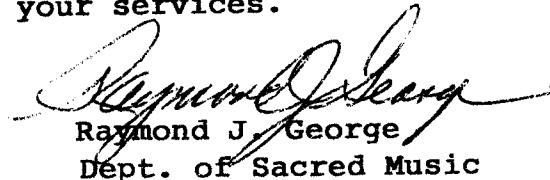

The pages have been numbered in the top center to allow room on the left and right corners to identify the contents of each page. In the upper right corner you will find the date of the Service and the Name of the Service. For example it would say January 6 and underneath "The Epiphany".

In the upper left corner we have identified the service such as "Vespers" or "Matins", and underneath that what part of the Service i.e. Exaposteilarion, Aposticha or the Glory etc. Along with that each page is identified "MENAION" in case it becomes detached from the work it can be identified.

In addition, before each service we have given some information as to how it works in conjunction with the Matins and Vesper Service books and gives the number of the pages where it can be found in that particular month.

If more information is needed refer to the "Nassar Divine Prayers and Service Book, starting on page 280. The Liturgical Guide is a further reference.

When using this material give yourself the luxury of working several weeks ahead of the date of the service. It is our hope that this publication will enhance your services.

The holy Prophet Daniel and the Three Children: Ananias, Azarias and Misael

Greetings to you all in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

When I was appointed chairman of the Sacred Music Department in February, 2006, I saw that we had already type-set Basil Kazan’s Byzantine Vespers Project as he originally wrote it. Some of the accenting of the music was incorrect, but the ison was added, and we had a much cleaner copy of it all. I then began to proof and correct his Byzantine Matins Project, already type-set by +Michael Kargatis, with the opportunity to make sure the barring and accenting of the music and the ison were done properly, and that the text was according to the approved text from The Divine Prayers & Services by Nassar. This Project was completed and approved for use in 2010.

The next Project our department took on was Kazan’s Menaion, the music for many of the Feast Days of the Saints and the 9 fixed Major Feast Days of the Orthodox Church celebrated throughout the year, since we discovered back then that it was out of print. This has been a 5 year project, now completed at the end of 2015. The music presented here in each of the 12 months of the Menaion is basically the original music written by Basil Kazan and Ray George, of blessed memory, but also corrected in the same manner as the Matins. In this updated, type-set edition of the Menaion, we have corrected the barring and accenting of the music, corrected the text according to Nassar, added various rubrics and instructions for the services according to the Typikon, added the names of the special melodies used for various stichera in Vespers and Matins, and added the ison to complete the style of Byzantine chant. The music presented here is to be used in conjunction with Kazan’s Vespers and Matins Project, as well as Nassar.

I am eternally grateful to Deborah Abraham for doing the initial type-setting of the Menaion back in 2007; to Michael Farrow and Emily Lowe for their role in proofing the final editions of each month; to Chadi Karam for helping me along the way with the correct ison; and to Paul Jabara, our current chairman, for allowing me to finish this Project.

May God continue to bless you all as we sing His praises throughout the year, glorify His holy Name, honor His Saints and celebrate the Feast Days of the Holy Orthodox Church.

Yours in Christ,

Christopher Holwey

After reciting three Psalms, beginning with "Blessed is the man . . .," sing "O Lord, to thee have I cried . . ." in Tone 2 from the Byzantine Vespers Project by Kazan, and the three Prosomia and verses, repeating each, as on page 1-5 in this book.

Then sing "Glory . . ." in Tone 4, from the Byzantine Vespers Project, followed by "Christ, by inquiring three times . . .," as on pages 6 and 7 of this book.

Now sing "Both Now . . ." and "David the Prophet who became through thee . . ." in Tone 4, from the Byzantine Vespers Project.

Then sing "Gladsome Light . . ." and the Daily Prokeimenon, followed by the usual petitions. Sing the Aposticha, as on pages 8-11 in this book.

Now sing "Glory . . ." in Tone 6, as on pages 12 and 13.

Then sing "Both Now . . .," as on the bottom of page 13 and the top of page 14 of this book.

Then sing the Troparion of the Saints in Tone 4, as on page 14. Sing "Glory . . ." and repeat the Troparion, then sing "Both now . . ." followed by "The mystery which was hidden from everlasting . . .," from the Byzantine Vespers Project.

Conclude with the dismissal.

Sing the following after "O Lord, to thee have I cried . . ."

Verse 1 - Fast

Ison

If thou O Lord should'st mark in - iq - ui - ties, O Lord, who shall stand, for with thee there is for - give - ness.

Special melody - The original melody: With what fair crowns
