Thou, the Fountain of Wisdom Who knowest things to come,
being in Bethany, Thou didst ask Martha's neighbors and friends, crying out: Where have ye buried My friend Lazarus? Out of compassion, Thou didst weep over him now four days dead, and then by Thy voice didst raise him, as the Life-giver and Lord, O Thou Friend of man and most compassionate.

Glory ... Both now ... (and repeat)
Second Sessional Hymn

Plagal First Mode

(Let us worship the Word)

Τοῦ Ἡγέων τῆς Φωτός ὁ Ἄνγγελος ἡμῶν Ζωοδότης ὁ Κύριος

For the ending:

Glory; Both now (repeat).
