At Thy word, O Word of God, dead
Lazarus now springeth forth, returning unto life again; and holding branches, all mankind doth sing Thy praise, O Mighty Lord, for Thou shalt ruin Hades completely by Thine own death.

Christ already spoileth thee, O death, by means of Lazarus. O Hades, where is thy victory?
The wailing cries of Bethany re-move from thence and fall on thee. Come, let us all now meet Him with branches of victory.
