

GREAT VESPERS ON DECEMBER 08
CONCEPTION OF THE THEOTOKOS BY RIGHTEOUS ANNA
CONSECRATION OF THE CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION IN JERUSALEM

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

THE PSALM OF INTRODUCTION—PSALM 103

Reader: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly. Confession and majesty hast Thou put on, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment, Who stretchest out the heaven as it were a curtain; Who supporteth His chambers in the waters, Who appointeth the clouds for His ascent, Who walketh upon the wings of the winds, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.

Who establisheth the earth in the sureness thereof; it shall not be turned back forever and ever. The abyss like a garment is His mantle; upon the mountains shall the waters stand. At Thy rebuke they will flee, at the voice of Thy thunder shall they be afraid.

The mountains rise up and the plains sink down, unto the place where Thou hast established them. Thou appointedst a bound that they shall not pass, neither return to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs in the valleys; between the mountains will the waters run. They shall give drink to all the beasts of the field; the wild asses will wait to quench their thirst. Beside them will the birds of the heaven lodge, from the midst of the rocks will they give voice.

He watereth the mountains from His chambers; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and green herb for the service of men, to bring forth bread out of the earth; and wine maketh glad the heart of man. To make his face cheerful with oil; and bread strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the plain shall be satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which Thou hast planted. There will the sparrows make their nests; the house of the heron is chief among them. The high mountains are a refuge for the harts, and so is the rock for the hares.

He hath made the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night, wherein all the beasts of the forest will go abroad; young lions roaring after their prey, and seeking their food from God. The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together, and they lay them down in their dens. Man shall go forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

The earth is filled with Thy creation. So is this great and spacious sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, small living creatures with the great. There go the ships; there this leviathan, whom Thou hast made to play therein. All things wait on Thee, to give them their food in due season; when Thou givest it them, they will gather it. When Thou openest Thy hand, all things shall be filled with goodness; when Thou turnest away Thy face, they shall be troubled. Thou wilt take their spirit, and they shall cease; and unto their dust shall they return. Thou wilt send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created; and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let the glory of the Lord be unto the ages; the Lord will rejoice in His works. Who looketh on the earth and maketh it tremble, Who toucheth the mountains and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord throughout my life, I will chant to my God for as long as I have my being.

May my words be sweet unto Him; I will rejoice in the Lord. O that sinners would cease from the earth, and they that work iniquity, that they should be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. (THRICE)
O our God and our Hope, glory to Thee!

“O LORD I HAVE CRIED” IN TONE FOUR

Choir: O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me; hear Thou me, O Lord. O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me. Give ear to the voice of my supplication when I cry out unto Thee: hear Thou me, O Lord.

Choir: Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as the incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice; hear Thou me, O Lord.

- + Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a protecting door round about my lips.
- + Incline not my heart to evil words, to make excuses in sins.
- + With men that work iniquity; and I will not communicate with the choicest of them.
- + The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me; but let not the oil of the sinner anoint my head.
- + For my prayer also shall still be against the things with which they are well pleased; their judges falling upon the rock have been swallowed up.
- + They shall hear my words, for they are sweet; as when the thickness of the earth is broken upon the ground, their bones are scattered by the side of hell.
- + But to Thee, O Lord, Lord, are mine eyes; in Thee have I put my trust, take not away my soul.
- + Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity.

- + Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst I alone escape.
- + I cried unto the Lord with my voice, with my voice unto the Lord, did I make my supplication.
- + I poured out my supplication before Him; I showed before Him my trouble.
- + When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knewest my path.
- + In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.
- + I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me.
- + Refuge failed me; no one cared for my soul.
- + I cried unto Thee, O Lord; I said: Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
- + Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low.
- + Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.

Verse 10. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy Name.

Verse 9. The righteous shall wait for me until Thou recompense me.

Verse 8. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord, Lord hear my voice.

Verse 7. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

For the Conception in Tone Four (Thou who wast called from on high)

Verse 6. If Thou, O Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Having past hope borne as fruit the holy Virgin,* who shall give birth in the flesh unto the God of all, * once-barren Anna is radiant * with jubilation, * rejoicing, dancing, and crying mightily: * All ye tribes of Israel, rejoice with me today, * who have conceived, casting off the blame * I had when childless; * the Benefactor hath hearkened to my prayer, * and in His goodness, He hath been well pleased * to heal all of the pains of my grieving heart * through the pangs of my childbirth, * even as of old He promised me.

Verse 5. Because of Thy Name have I waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon Thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

He that made water to well up from a dry rock * granteth now the Ever-virgin Lady to thy womb * as fruit, O Anna, and it is she * from whom the water * of our salvation shall issue forth for us; * no more dost thou sojourn on the earth as fruitless earth; * thou art estranged from reproach henceforth, * for thou shalt bring forth * the earth that beareth the Wheat of Life Himself, * and He shall take away every reproach * from all mortals, as He is well pleased to do, * through His bowels of mercy * being formed in what was not His own.

Verse 4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel trust in the Lord.

The Prophets' mystic predictions find fulfilment, * for the holy mountain is established in the womb; * the great majestic throne of the King * is being readied; * and the divine ladder hath been planted firm; * on the earth, the place where God doth walk hath been prepared; * the bush that burned not doth now begin * to bud and sprout forth; * and the myrrh-vessel of holiness doth now * well forth to check the streams of barrenness * of chaste Anna, the eldress of godly mind; * let us all call her blessed, * while extolling her with fervent faith.

For the Consecration in Tone Six (Ye angelic hosts)

Verse 3. For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is abundant redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Sovereign Master Christ, Thou divine immortal Wisdom, * by Thy gracious gaze, do Thou visit us from Heaven * in this, Thy holy temple, and preserve it unshakeable * till the consummation of the world, O compassionate Christ God, our Savior; * and to all who flee * thereto with faith, do Thou vouchsafe * Thy light unapproachable.

Verse 2. Praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people.

Solomon of old, when he built the holy temple, * offered blood of beasts unto Thee for sacrifices, * as types of Thine own temple, which Thou willingly didst acquire * with Thy very Blood, O Friend of man; and together with him, we implore Thee, * that Thou ever send *Thine Upright Spirit hereinto, * Thou only Compassionate.

Verse 1. For His mercy is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

Filled with festive joy, come let us rejoice, ye brethren; * let us form a chorus that singeth in the spirit; * and let us make the lantern of our soul bright with oil today; * for thus is the Consecration honored, and glory rendered our Creator, * by Whom every man * is raised aloft to Heaven's heights * through being renewed in soul.

DOXASTICON FOR THE CONSECRATION IN TONE SIX

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As we keep the memorial of the consecration of Thy temple, O Lord, we glorify Thee, the Bestower of Sanctification, and we pray that the senses of our souls be sanctified, by the intercessions of Thy glorious prizewinners, O Thou Who art good, O Almighty Lord.

THEOTOKION FOR THE CONCEPTION IN TONE ONE

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The mighty work that was kept hidden from Angels and men, that marvelous mystery foretold in oracles from the beginning of time, is today formed as a babe in the loins of chaste Anna: Mary, the Child of God, is prepared as the habitation of the Sovereign King of the ages, for the refashioning of our race. With conscience clear, let us make entreaty, crying unto her: Since thou art the protection of us Christians, intercede with thy Son and God that our souls be saved.

THE HOLY ENTRANCE

(While the Doxasticon is chanted, the following dialogue occurs QUIETLY as the clergy make the entrance.)

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: In the evening and in the morning and at noonday we praise Thee, we bless Thee, we give thanks unto Thee, and we pray unto Thee, O Master of all, Lord Who lovest mankind: Direct our prayer as incense before Thee, and incline not our hearts unto words or thoughts of evil, but deliver us from all who seek after our souls. For unto Thee, O Lord, Lord, are our eyes, and in Thee have we hoped. Put us not to shame, O our God. For unto Thee are due all glory, honor, and worship: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Deacon: Amen.

(When the clergy reach the center of the solea, the first part of the great censuring begins. After the first part of the great censuring is completed, this next dialogue occurs QUIETLY.)

APOSTICHA FOR THE CONCEPTION IN TONE FIVE (Rejoice)

Anna, the worthy namesake of grace, * as she was praying for a child, cried aloud to God, * the Maker and Lord of all things: O Adonai Sabaoth, * Thou well knowest what reproach the childless bear; * do Thou then Thyself dispel the great sorrow within my heart, * and do Thou open wide the floodgates that bar my womb; * her that hath no fruit, do Thou show forth as bearing fruit, * that we might bring the child which shall be born as a gift to Thee, * even while blessing and praising and glorifying with one accord * Thy tender compassion, * whereby pardon and Great Mercy is granted to the world.

Verse 1. The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David, and He will not annul it.

Anna the chaste was praying of old, * and while entreating God with firm and undoubting faith, * she heard the voice of an Angel that gave assurance to her, * promising divine fulfilment of her prayers; * the bodiless minister then declared to her openly: * Thy supplication is come nigh and hath reached the Lord; * put away thy tears; be not downcast nor sorrowful. * For thou shalt truly be a fruitful olive tree putting forth * a comely branch, even Mary, the Virgin who shall bear in the flesh * Christ Jesus, the Flower, * Who bestoweth His Great Mercy and peace upon the world.

Verse 2. Of the fruit of thy loins will I set upon thy throne.

Now doth the hallowed yoke-pair bring forth * the godly heifer, whence shall come forth the Fatted Calf * ineffably in a marvel; and He shall freely be slain * truly for the whole world as a sacrifice. * For which cause, with joyful hearts they both offer unceasing thanks * in great compunction to the Master and God of all, * and from this day forth they have all the world in their debt. * Let us then call them blessed, and with faith, dance for godly joy * on the all-hallowed conception of her that chastely was born of them: * our God's Virgin Mother, * even her through whom great mercy is richly given forth.
