Ison

When thou didst rise from the grave, O Sav - - iour, thou didst re - veal thy - self a Man_ by na - - ture, as thou stood in the midst of thy_ dis - ci - - ples, and ate with them, and taught_ them the bap - tis - m of__ re - - pent - - ance. Then at once thou didst as - cend to thy heav'n - ly Fa - - ther and prom - ised to send__ them the Com - for - ter. Where - fore, O most di - vine and in - car - - nate God, glo - ry to thy Res - ur - rec - - tion.
