Cleansed within in mind and soul, now like the children let us praise

Christ with longing and with faith, and holding branches, let us shout unto the Master: Most blessed art Thou, O Savior, that comest in the world to save Adam's stock from the ancient curse, Thyself now spiritually having become the new Adam, O Friend of man, as seemed good to Thee.

To Thee be glory, O Word, Who workest all things unto our profit.

Translation copyright © 2005 Holy Transfiguration Monastery, Brookline, MA, used with permission. All rights reserved.
Lazarus the four days dead, Thou, Lord, didst raise up from the very sepulcher, teaching all men to cry to Thee, with palms and branches in fervent faith: Blessed art Thou that dost come in the Name of the Lord.
First Sessional Hymns

Fourth Mode

(Melody: Joseph was amazed)

'Ηχος Δι

cleaned within mind and soul, now like the children

let us praise Christ with longing and with faith, and holding branches, let us shout unto the Master: Most blessed art Thou, O Savior, that comest in the world to save Adam's stock from the ancient curse, Thyself now spiritually having become the new Adam, O Friend of man, as seemed good to Thee. To Thee be glory, O Word, Who workest all things unto our profit.
Lenten Triodion - Palm Sunday Matins - Kathismata

Fourth Mode

(Melody: On this day Thou hast appeared) az- a- rus the four days dead, Thou, Lord, didst raise up from the ver- y sep- ul- cher, teach-ing all men to cry to Thee, with palms and branch-es in fer- vent faith: Bless-ed art Thou that dost come in the Name of the Lord.