As sung during the Dormition Fast
The Paraklesis Service
With the Little Supplicatory Canon
To the Most Holy Theotokos
As sung during the Dormition Fast

The Paraklesis Service is served during times of tribulation, but also on each evening of the Dormition Fast, August 1-13, inclusive. In the Dormition Fast, the Little and Great Paraklesis canons can be chanted in alternating sequence from day to day, at the end of Vespers or in a standalone service. If a parish knows only the Little Paraklesis, this alone can be chanted each time as permitted by His Eminence, Metropolitan JOSEPH. We begin this sequence with the Little Paraklesis, except when August 1 falls on Sunday. We do not chant the Paraklesis on any Saturday evening and also not on the paramon of the Feast of Transfiguration (i.e., in the evening on August 5). On Sunday evening and on the day of Transfiguration in the evening the Great Paraklesis is chanted. Accordingly, the series of Parakleses unfolds for the intervening days.

The table below shows the series of Parakleses, in which the date in August runs horizontally and the day of the week on which August 1 falls runs vertically. The intersection of these two yields one of three options: L, G, or --. The letter ‘L’ refers to the Little Paraklesis; ‘G’ to the Great Paraklesis; and the double-dash refers to the evening on which no Paraklesis would be served.

If Paraklesis will be offered with Vespers, it is chanted after “The Prayer of St. Simeon” with the omission of the opening blessing of the Paraklesis Service. Rather, the reader recites Psalm 142, O Lord, hear my prayer, give ear unto my supplication... and the rest, as shown in the body of the text.

However, if Paraklesis is offered, more commonly, without Vespers as a standalone service, then follow the order of the service exactly as it appears in this text.

In the Paraklesis Service, we remember names of the living in need of God’s mercy and help during the three litanies. If your parish has a long list of names, then the priest can mention it in one, two or all of the litanies.

An Icon of the Theotokos is placed on a stand in the center of the Solea and the Beautiful Gate remains closed. The priest, being vested in exorasson and blue epituchelon, standing on the Solea before the Icon of the Theotokos, makes three metanias and says in an audible voice:
Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People: Amen.

Priest: Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.
O heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, Who art everywhere present, and fillest all things, the Treasury of good things, and Giver of life: Come, and abide in us, and cleanse us from every stain, and save our souls, O good One.

People: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

All-Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy Name’s sake.

Lord, have mercy. (thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People: Amen.

Lord, have mercy. (twelve times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

PSALM 142

O Lord, hear my prayer, give ear unto my supplication in Thy truth; hearken unto me in Thy righteousness. And enter not into judgment with Thy servant, for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified. For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath humbled my life down to the earth. He hath sat me in darkness as those that have been long dead, and my spirit within me is become despondent; within me my heart is troubled. I remembered days of old, I meditated on all Thy works, I pondered on the creations of Thy hands. I stretched forth my hands unto Thee; my soul thirsteth after Thee like a waterless land. Quickly hear me, O Lord; my spirit hath fainted away. Turn not Thy face away from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit. Cause me to hear Thy mercy in the morning; for in Thee have I put my hope. Cause me to know, O Lord, the way wherein I should walk; for unto Thee have I lifted up my soul. Rescue me from mine enemies, O Lord; unto Thee have I fled for refuge. Teach me to do Thy will, for Thou art my God. Thy good Spirit shall lead me in the land of uprightness; for Thy name’s sake, O Lord, shalt Thou quicken me. In Thy righteousness shalt Thou bring my soul out of affliction, and in Thy mercy shalt Thou utterly destroy mine enemies. And Thou shalt cut off all them that afflict my soul, for I am Thy servant.

“GOD IS THE LORD” IN TONE FOUR

Verse 1. O give thanks unto the Lord and call upon His Holy Name. (Refrain) Verse 2. All nations compassed me about: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them. (Refrain)
Verse 3. This is the Lord’s doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. (Refrain)

APOLYTIKIA AND THEOTOKION

Apolytikion to the Theotokos - Tone 4
Special melody: Thou Who wast lifted up

To the The-o-to-kos let us run now most ear-nest-ly, we sinners all and wretched ones, and fall prostrate in repen-tance.

calling from the depths of our souls: Lady, come unto our aid, have compassion upon us; hasten thou for we are lost in a throng of transgressions; turn not thy servants away with empty hands, for thee alone do we have as our only hope.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Then chant the Apolytikon of the church temple, and the following.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Theotokion - Tone 4

O Theotokos, we shall not cease from speaking of all thy mighty acts, all we the unworthy ones;

for if thou hadst not stood to intercede for us,
PSALM 50

Have mercy on me, O God, according to Thy Great Mercy; and according to the multitude of Thy compassions blot out my transgression. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I know mine iniquity, and my sin is ever before me. Against Thee only have I sinned and done this evil before Thee, that Thou mightest be justified in Thy words, and prevail when Thou art judged. For behold, I was conceived in iniquities, and in sins did my mother bear me. For behold, Thou hast loved truth; the hidden and secret things of Thy wisdom hast Thou made manifest unto me. Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be made clean; Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow. Thou shalt make me to hear joy and gladness; the bones that be humbled, they shall rejoice. Turn Thy face away from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation, and with Thy governing Spirit establish me. I shall teach transgressors Thy ways, and the ungodly shall turn back unto Thee. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou God of my salvation; my tongue shall rejoice in Thy righteousness. O Lord, Thou shalt open my lips, and my mouth shall declare Thy praise. For if Thou hadst desired sacrifice, I had given it; with whole-burnt offerings Thou shalt not be pleased. A sacrifice unto God is a broken spirit; a heart that is broken and humbled God will not despise. Do good, O Lord, in Thy good pleasure unto Zion, and let the walls of Jerusalem be built up. Then shalt Thou be pleased with a sacrifice of righteousness, with oblation and whole-burnt offerings. Then shall they offer bullocks upon Thine altar.

THE LITTLE SUPPLICATORY CANON IN TONE EIGHT

(NOTE: We do not chant the heirmoi as listed at the start of each ode, except for the ninth, because they do not pertain to the theme of the Paraklesis canon. However, they are listed here to set the melody pattern for the subsequent troparia. We begin Odes 1-8 with “Most holy Theotokos, save us.”)
Ode One

(Heirmos) Traversing the water as on dry land, * and thereby escaping * from the toils of Egypt’s land, * the Israelites cried aloud, proclaiming: * unto our God and Redeemer, let us now sing.

1) By many temptations am I distressed;

in search of salvation unto thee have I taken flight; O Mother of the Word, thou ever Virgin, from all ordeals and afflictions deliver me.

2) Attacks of the passions disquiet me;

my soul to reppletion hath been filled with despondency. Be still them, O Maiden, with the calmness of

Ode Three

(Heirmos) Of the vault of the heavens art Thou, O Lord, Fashioner; * so, too, of the Church art Thou Founder. * Do Thou establish me * in unfeigned love for Thee, * Who art the Height of things sought for, * and staff of the faithful, O Thou only Friend of man.
2) I beseech thee, O Virgin do thou dispel far from me all of the distress of despair and turbulence in my soul; for thou, O Bride of God, hast given birth to the Lord Christ, Who is Prince of Peace, O thou only all-blameless one.

Glo-ry to the Fa-ther and to the Son and to the Ho-ly Spir-it.

3) Since thou gavest birth unto our Bene-fac-tor, the cause of good, from the wealth of thy loving-kindness, do thou pour forth on all; for thou canst do all things, since thou didst bear Christ, the One Who is might-y in

Ode Four

(Heirmos) I have hearkened and heard, O Lord, * of Thy dispensation’s most awesome mystery; * and I came to knowledge of Thy works, * and I sang the praise of Thy Divinity.

Lull the tempest of all my sins, and bestill the raging of passions with thy calm; for progenitress art thou of Him Who is Lord and Helmsman, O thou Bride of God.

1) Pure one, fill my heart with re - joic - ing un - to plen - i - tude, and grant thine un - de - filed fel - li - ty, since thou didst give birth un - to Him Who is the cause of joy.

Most ho - ly The - o - to - kos, save us.
2) Come, deliver us out of dangers, O pure Mother of God, since thou art Mother of deliverance,
and of the peace which doth surpass all human reasoning.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

3) Dissipate the gloom of my trespasses, O Bride of God, with the clear brightness of thy radiance,
for thou didst bear the Light divine which was before all time.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.
Entreaty do I pour forth unto the Lord, * and to Him do I proclaim all my sorrows, * for many woes fill my soul to repletion, * and lo, my life unto Hades hath now drawn nigh. * Like Jonah do I pray to Thee: * Raise me up from corruption, O Lord, my God.

Most ho-ly The-o-to-kos, save us.
Most holy Theotokos, save us.

2) I know thee as the protection of my life and most safe fortification, O Virgin. Disperse the horde of my many temptations and put to silence demonic audacity. Unceasingly I pray to thee:

From corruption of passions deliver me.

Glo-ry to the Fa-ther and to the Son and to the Ho-ly Spir-it.

3) A bulwark of safe retreat art thou to us, and of souls art thou the perfect salvation, and a relief in distresses, O Maiden, and in thy light do we ever exult with joy. O Lady, do thou also now from all passions and perils deliver us.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

4) Bedridden, I lie supine with sickness now, and no healing for my flesh is existent except for thee, who didst bear the world's Savior, our God, the Healer of every infirmity. I pray to thee, for thou art good:

From corruption and illnesses raise me up.
TROPARIA AFTER THE SIXTH ODE IN TONE EIGHT

Censing the Icon of the Theotokos, the Priest says:

Priest: Have mercy on us, O God, according to Thy Great Mercy, we pray Thee, hearken and have mercy.

In those days, Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, and she entered the house of Zachariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and she exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the voice of thy greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord.” And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for He has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden. For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed; for He Who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His Name.” And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her home.

TROPARION IN TONE SIX (Having laid up all their hope)

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy lovingkindness; according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

O en-trust me not, I pray, to any hu-man pro-tec-tion,
O our Lady, holy one, but do thou accept the prayer of thy suppliant. Sorrow hath fettered me, and I am unable to endure and bear the demons' darts; a shelter have I not, neither place to run, I, the wretched one; embattled from all sides am I, and no consolation have I but thee. Mistress of creation, protection and hope of faithful ones: turn not away when I pray to thee; do that which will profit me.

Little Supplicatory Canon

Most holy Theotokos, save us.

2) Make request, O pure Mother, to thy Son Who hath willed to grant mercy unto us, to rescue from transgressions and from the soul's defilement those who cry out most faithfully:

O God of our Fathers, blessed art Thou.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

3) A fount of incorruption and a tower of safety is she who gave Thee birth. A treasure of salvation and portal of repentance hast Thou proved her to them that shout:

O God of our Fathers, blessed art Thou.
Ode Eight

(Heirmos) The King of Heaven, * Whom all the hosts of angels hymn * with their chants and praises of glory, * praise ye and exalt Him to the ages forever.

1) Do not disdain those who seek the aid that thou dost grant, for, O Virgin Maiden, they do hymn thee, and they all exalt thee unto ages forever.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

4) Deign to grant restoration from diseases of body and soul to those who run to thy divine protection with faith, O Theotokos, and thus grant them recovery;

O Mother of Christ, our Savior art thou.
Most holy Theotokos, save us.

2) On all who hymn thee with faith, O Virgin, and exalt thy truly ineffable Offspring, thou poured forth a great abundance of thy cures and healings.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

3) All the diseases that plague my soul dost thou make well, and the sufferings of the flesh thou healest also;
wherefore, O thou Maiden full of grace, I glorify thee.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.
4) All the assaults of the temptations dost thou quell, and the on slaughts of the passions dost thou ban ish; wherefore do we hymn thee to all ages, O Virgin.

Ode Nine

Heirmos

Most rightly we confess thee as our God's birth giver, we who through thee have been saved, O thou Virgin most pure.

With choirs of bodiless angels, thee do we magnify.

Most holy The oto kos, save us.

1) The torrent of my weeping spurn not with refusal, for thou didst give birth to Him Who doth take away all tears from ev'ry face, O thou Virgin; for He is Christ indeed.
Most holy Theotokos, save us.

2) Do thou, O Virgin Maiden, fill my heart with gladness, for thou art she who received all the fullness of joy and made to vanish away all sorrow of sinfulness.

Most holy Theotokos, save us.

3) A haven and protection, and a wall unshaken, and a rejoicing and shelter and place of retreat do thou become, O thou Virgin, for those who flee to thee.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
The priest censes the icon of the Theotokos at the center of the church as the people chant:

THEOTOKION IN TONE EIGHT

It is truly meet to bless thee, O Theotokos,
The priest does the great censing of the church as the people chant:

THE MEGALYNARIA IN TONE EIGHT

1) Higher than the heavens above art thou, and thou art much purer than the radiance of the sun; for thou hast redeemed us out of the curse that held us.

O Mistress of creation, with hymns we honor thee.
2) From the great abundance of all my sins, ill am I in body, ailing also am I in soul.

Thee have I as refuge. Do thou therefore help me, O hope of all the hopeless, for thou art full of grace.

3) O Lady and Mother of Christ our God, receive supplication from us wretches, who beg of thee that thou make entreaty unto the One born from thee.

O Mistress of creation, do thou intercede for us.
Here, chant the megalynarion of the church temple as provided in the Paraklesis supplement. If you do not find it there, contact the Department of Liturgics.

THE TRISAGION PRAYERS

People: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

All-Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy Name’s sake.

Lord, have mercy. (thrice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People: Amen.
On the night of August 1, sing the following:

APOLYTIKION OF ST. STEPHEN THE ARCHDEACON IN TONE FOUR

(Be quick to anticipate)

The crown of the Kingdom hath adorned the brow of thy head because of the contests that thou hast endured for Christ God, thou first of the martyred Saints, for when thou hadst censured the Jews' madness, thou sawest Christ thy Savior standing at the right hand of the Father.

O Stephen, ever pray Him for us, that He would save our souls.

THEOTOKION IN TONE FOUR

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

---

Basil Kazan (1915-2001)
On the nights of August 2-3, sing the following:

TROPARIA OF CONTRITION IN TONE SIX (Soft Chromatic)

Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us; for laying aside all defense we sinners offer unto Thee, as Master, this supplication: have mercy on us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

O Lord, have mercy on us, for in Thee have we put our trust, be not exceeding-ly wroth with us, nor re-mem-ber our in-iqui-ties, but look down upon us even now, as thou art compassionate, and deliver us from our enemies; for Thou art our God, and we are Thy people; we are all the work of Thy hands, and we call upon Thy Name.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Open unto us the door of thy compassion, O blessed Theotokos. As we set our hope in thee, may we not be confounded, through thee, may we be delivered from all adversities, for thou art the salvation of the race of Christians.
But if the nights of August 2 or 3 are Fridays, sing the following:

APOLYTIKIA & THEOTOKION FOR THE MARTYRS & DEPARTED IN TONE TWO

St. Anthony's Monastery, 2005

O apostles, martyrs, prophets, hierarchs, righteous, and just ones, who have finished your course well and have kept the Faith:

seeing ye have boldness with the Saviour, be-suech Him for us, since He is good, that our souls be saved, we pray.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Keep thy servants in remembrance, O Lord, since Thou art good;

and do Thou forgive their every sin in this life; for no man is without sin, except for Thee Who art able to grant rest even unto those that have departed hence.
Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Un.

O holy Mother of the Inefatable Light, with reverence we magnify thee, honoring thee with angelic hymns.

On the night of August 4, sing the following:

APOLYTIKION OF FOREFEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION IN TONE FOUR

(Be quick to anticipate)
On the nights of August 6-12, sing the following:

APOLYTIKION OF THE TRANSFIGURATION IN TONE SEVEN

When Thou, O Christ our God, wast transfigured on the mountain, thou didst reveal thy glory to thy disciples in proportion as they could bear it. Let thine everlasting light also enlighten us sinners, through the intercessions of the Theotokos, O thou Bestower of light, glory to thee.
On the night of August 13, sing the following:

APOLYTIKION OF FOREFEAST OF THE DORMITION IN TONE FOUR

(Be quick to anticipate)

In faith, O ye people, leap for joy while clapping your hands, and gather in gladness on this day with longing and shout in radiant jubilation. For the Theotokos cometh nigh to departing from the earth unto the heights and we glorify her with glory as the Mother of God in our unceasing hymns.

FINAL LITANY

Censing the Icon of the Theotokos, the Priest says:

Priest: Have mercy on us, O God, according to Thy Great Mercy, we pray Thee, hearken and have mercy.

People:

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.
Priest: Again we pray for all pious and Orthodox Christians.

People:

Priest: Again we pray for our Father and Metropolitan N., (and for our Bishop N.) and for all our brotherhood in Christ.

People: Lord, have mercy. (thrice)

Priest: Again we pray for mercy, life, peace, health, salvation and visitation and pardon and forgiveness of sins for the servants of God [names], the parishioners, members of the parish council and organizations, donors and benefactors of this holy temple, and for the suffering Christians of Syria, Lebanon, Palestine, Iraq, Egypt, and all of the Middle East (add any other nations that may be appropriate).

People: Lord, have mercy. (thrice)

Priest: Again we pray that He may keep this holy church and this city and every city and countryside from wrath, famine, plague, earthquake, flood, fire, the sword, foreign invasion, civil war and sudden death; that our good God, Who loveth mankind, will be gracious, favorable and conciliatory and turn away and dispel all the wrath stirred up against us and all sickness, and may deliver us from His righteous chastisement which impendeth on us, and have mercy upon us.
People: Lord, have mercy. \textit{(forty times, sung as follows)}

Priest: Again we pray that the Lord our God may hearken unto the voice of the supplication of us sinners, and have mercy upon us.

People:

Priest: Hear us, O God our Savior, the Hope of all the ends of the earth and of those who are far off upon the sea; and be gracious, \textit{be gracious}, O Master, upon our sins, and have mercy upon us. For Thou art a merciful God and lovest mankind, and unto Thee do we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People:
Deacon: Wisdom!

People: Father, bless!

Priest: Christ our God, the Existing One, is blessed, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People: Amen. Preserve, O God, the Holy Orthodox Faith and all Orthodox Christians, unto ages of ages. Amen.

Priest: Most Holy Theotokos, save us.

People: More honorable than the Cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the Seraphim, thou who without corruption bearest God the Word and art truly Theotokos: we magnify thee.

Priest: Glory to Thee, O Christ our God and our hope, glory to Thee.

Choir: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Lord, have mercy (thrice). Father, bless.

Priest: May Christ our true God, (insert appropriate characteristic phrase) through the intercessions of His all-immaculate and all-blameless Holy Mother; (insert appropriate weekday commemoration); of Saint N., the patron and protector of this holy community; of (name(s) of the saint(s) of the day), whose memory we celebrate today; of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna, and of all the Saints: have mercy on us and save us, forasmuch as He is good and loveth mankind.

People: Amen.

The clergy and faithful come forward and venerate the Icon of the Theotokos. During the Dormition Fast, the people chant the following exaposteilaria in Tone Three to the melody “O ye Apostles from afar.”

Little Supplicatory Canon

Thou art the sweetness of Angels, the gladness of afflicted ones, and the protectress of Christians,

O Virgin Mother of our Lord, be thou my helper and save me from out of eternal torments.

I have thee as Mediatrix with the befriending God, may He not censure my actions before the hosts of the Angels. I supplicate thee, O Virgin, come unto mine aid most quickly.
Priest: Through the prayers of our Holy Fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy upon us and save us.

People: Amen.
