Christ is Risen

Traditional melody

Byzantine Chant Tone 5
Plagal First Mode, on Pa (D)

Joyous!

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs, bestowing life.

(Initially, sung three times, first by the Priest, with no final ending. Then continue with the quick version on the next page, with its verses.)

For the ending, final time, started by the Priest (after the quick version has been sung 6 times)

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs,

Concluded by the choir or chanters

Christ is Risen
Brief (quick) version

Byzantine Chant Tone 5
Plagal First Mode, on Ke (A)

(Quicker)

\[ \text{A} \]

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death,

\[ \text{G} \text{A} \]

and upon those in the tombs, bestowing life.

Repeat the above after each of these verses, usually said by the Priest:

- Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered, and let them that hate Him flee from before His face.
- As smoke vanisheth, so let them vanish; as wax melteth before the fire.
- So let sinners perish at the presence of God, and let the righteous be glad.
- This is the day which the Lord hath made; let us rejoice and be glad therein.
- Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
- Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(This is sung if a final ending is needed for the quick version, such as if this version is sung for the Third Antiphon, or instead of "Blessed be the Name of the Lord" on Pascha and its Leave-taking.)

\[ \text{A} \]

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death,

\[ \text{Un.} \text{A} \text{G} \text{A} \]

and upon those in the tombs, bestowing life.
