

January 31st

HOLY AND WONDERWORKING UNMERCENARIES CYRUS AND JOHN

Praises of Orthros

Byzantine Mode 4

Special Melody: As one valiant

1. Let us hon - or with sa - cred songs that di - vine pair of
2. Ye are heal - ers, ye blest of God, for the sick and the
3. The fair vir - gins of Christ our God dance in glad - ness and mar-tyred Saints, who pos-ess the ra - di - ance of the Trin - i - ty;

suf - fer - ing; stars of the di - vine Faith that nev - er cease to shine;
joy to - day with the two di - vine Mar - tyrs wise in god - li - ness;

those firm and stead - fast foun - da - tions of the Faith; the sweet - con - fes - sion's el - o - quent ad - vo - cates, par - tak - ers with and as par - tak - ers with them in their great glo - ry and

- smell - ing blooms breath - ing the true fra - gran - cy of the Mar - tyrs' hosts; ye in truth have both re - ceived wor - thy ra - di - ance, with them they now mag - ni - fy Him that knowl - edge of God Most High; let us all ac - claim crowns for your vic - to - ry, Cy - rus most re - nowned gave — pow - er un - to them; and they in - ter - cede

bless - ed Cy - rus to - geth - er with great and wise John; where - fore, im - por - tune the
 that He res - cue from per - ils and cor -

G

John: they are un - ceas - ing in - ter - ces - sors
 Sav - ior in be - half of them that hymn — you
 -rup - tion them that faith - ful - ly do hon - or

⁶ D E

in our be - half — with the Friend of man.
 with songs of praise — in un - doubt - ing faith.
 their ev - er - ven - 'ra - ble mem - o - ry.