2) All a - flame with zeal for the Lord Most High, thou most fierce - ly didst re - buke trans - gress - ing kings, O man of God; be - ing moved with might - y fer - vor, thou didst slay the priests of shame; in wa - ter, thou didst kin - dle strange and won - drous fire; and thou didst well forth food that nev - er had been tilled; thou with thy man - tle didst cleave in twain the Jor - dan's wa - ters, O bless - ed one. Do thou en - treat Christ the Sav - ior that our souls be saved.

3) When, O sa - cred Proph - et, thou ver - i - ly hadst shown forth the life of Heav - en on thē earth and wast made rich in thy - self with thē en - hy - po - stat - ic ev - er - last - ing Life, by breath - ing, thou didst res - ur - rect the child that died; till now — hast thou re - -mained be - yond the reach of death. Mount - ing a char - i - ot all of fire, thou wast then lift - ed up in the sky. Do thou — en - treat Christ the Sav - ior that our souls — be — saved.
