I picture that day and that hour, when we shall stand naked and condemned before the just Judge. Then the trumpet shall blow with great shouting, and the foundations of the earth shall shake, and the dead shall rise from their graves, and all become of one statue, and the secret thoughts of all stand revealed before Thee. And they who repented not in their lifetime shall wail and mourn, and shall proceed to the nethermost fire. But the righteous shall enter the heavenly chamber with joy and rejoicing.

Verse 6 (Tone 6): Praise Him on the loud cymbals; praise Him on the high-sounding cymbals; let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

Verse 7 (Tone 6): Arise, O my God; lift up Thine hand and forget not the humble.
What a terrible hour, and what a fearful day, when the Judge sitteth on the terrible throne, and the books shall be opened, and deeds rebuked, and the secret things of darkness revealed, and the angels go out to gather all the nations! Come and hear, ye kings and princes, ye slaves and free, ye sinners and righteous, the rich and the poor; for He that is about to judge the whole universe shall come. Who then shall be able to stand before His face, when the angels shall rise before Him reproaching the deeds, thoughts, and opinions that came forth in the night and in the day. What a terrible hour then!
Wherefore, O soul, be ware, before the end, and cry out,
God, save me again; for Thou alone art compassion ate.

Verse 8 (Tone 8): I will praise Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart; I will show all Thy marvelous works.

Verily, Daniel the Prophet when he became the man of desires, and saw the power of God, cried thus, the judgment seat was set, and the books were opened. See, therefore, O my soul. Dost thou fast? Deal not treacherously with thy neighbor. Wilt thou es chew food? Judge not thy brother, lest thou be sent to the fire and be burned up like wax; that without hindrance Christ shall bring thee with Him into His kingdom.
