1) O life-giving Lord, after Thy dread Resurrection, as Thou brakest not the seals of the tomb, so when the doors had been shut fast,

Thou didst likewise enter and while bringing joy of heart to Thine all famed Apostles didst grant Thine upright

Spirit unto them for the sake of Thine immeasurable and Great Mercy, O Almighty Christ our God.

2) When Thou didst appear, O blessed Lord, to Thy venerable disciples, Thomas, also called Didymus, was absent from their midst.

Wherefore, he believed not in Thy Rising from the dead and cried to them that saw Thee: Except I put my finger in His side and the marks made by the piercing nails,

I believe not that the Lord is risen again.
3) To Thomas did the Lord exclaim: As thou wilt, put forth thy hand; touch Me and know Me to have an earthen body that hath bones.

Be not unbelieving, but do as the others do so likewise be believing. Then Thomas was persuaded and he cried: Thou, O Jesus, art my Lord and God;

praise and glory to Thy Rising from the dead.
