

Our God is in Heaven and on Earth

Great Prokeimenon

Byzantine Chant Tone 7

Chadi Karam

The musical notation is written on a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. Chord symbols are placed above the notes: F (Refrain) above the first note, C above the fourth note, F above the sixth note, E above the seventh note, and F above the eighth note. The lyrics are: "Our God is in Heav - en and on earth; He hath done what - so - ev - er He hath pleased." An alternate first ending is shown below the main melody, starting with the word "what" and ending with "er He hath pleased." It features a different melodic line for the phrase "what - so - ev - er".

Verse 1. Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language.

(Refrain)

Verse 2. The sea saw it and fled; Jordan was driven back. (Refrain)

Verse 3. What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest, thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back? (Refrain)

Final ending

The musical notation is written on a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat. Chord symbols are placed above the notes: F above the first note, C above the fourth note, D above the sixth note, C above the seventh note, and Un. above the eighth note. The lyrics are: "Our God is in Heav - en and on earth; He hath done what - so - ev - er He hath pleased." The melody for the final ending is identical to the main melody but includes a final flourish on the word "pleased."
