From Heaven Gabriel Cried to Her
Richard Toensing

Gently, not too fast ($ \text{d} = \text{ca. 48}$)

1. From heaven Gabriel cried to her, The
2. But Mary answer'd swiftly then, "A 3. The aim of God disclosing there, The
4. "When God desires", the Angel said, "Then
5. She cried aloud as she had heard, "So Maiden, bessed, holy, pure, "All-hail, for virgin still, I know no man, How can it Angel said again to her, "The Holy nature's way is set aside, And things be-let it be as by your word, And I shall in your virgin's womb The pre-er nal be I bear a son, For such a thing is Spirit comes to you, The perfect will of yond the human race Will come to pass by bear the flesh-less One, Who taking flesh, shall

FOR PARA-LITURGICAL USE ONLY - NOT TO BE SUNG AS PART OF THE VESPERS LITURGY.

Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese, RT, Rev. 2, 1/15/07.
From Heaven Gabriel Cried to Her

God will come; To be conceived and come to never done; And who has ever seen a God to do; The power of the Highest love and grace; The power of the Highest be my Son, And believe that what I say is birth, Who by His word has come to earth," birth Without a seed up on the earth?"

comes To overshadow you at once," true O holy Lady grace imbued," race, To ancient glory by His grace."