A-men. Christ is risen from the dead,

trampling down death by death, and upon

those in the tombs bestowing life.

Third time with final ending

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down

dead by death, and upon those in the tombs

be-stowing life.

* Traditionally, the clergy sing "Christ is Risen," and only on the final time does the choir finish with "bestowing life."
A - men. Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life.

Third time with final ending

Christ is risen from the dead,

trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life.

Choir

life.