

January 15th

The Venerable Paul of Thebes

Stichera on "O Lord, I have cried"

Byzantine Tone 2
Special Melody: When he took thee

Adapted by Rassem El Massih

1) When__ by in - spi - ra - tion of__ our God thou, O Fa - ther,
2) Hav - ing sep - a - rat - ed thy - self from all as - so - ci -
3) Thou__ didst lead a won - drous life on earth, dwell - ing in the wise - ly for - sook - est the cares and trou - bles of life

- a - tion with man - kind, O Fa - ther Paul,__ from thy youth, midst of wild beasts and most strange - ly min - is - tered to set - ting forth to strug - gle in as - cet - ic thou wast first to come un - to thē ut - ter by a bird that served thee by thē in - spi -

pains__ and__ toils, then in glad - ness didst thou at - tain wil - der - ness, liv - ing deep - er in sol - i - tude
- ra - tion of God; when the ver - y great An - tho - ny to un - trod - den des - erts, set a - flame with love and ar - dent than an - y mo - nas - tic, known to none through - out thy life, un - had found thee and seen__ this, he was strick - en with a - maze - ment, long - ing for__ the__ Lord.

- til great An - tho - ny
O most right - eous__ Paul;

January 6th - Venerable Paul of Thebes - Stichera at Lord I have cried - 2

Where - fore, des - o - lat - ing the pas - sions found thee by di - vine in - spi - ra - tion and he glo - ri - fied with - out ceas - ing

through thy per - se - ver - ance in good things, as a hid - den trea - sure of great price,
Him Who as our God and our Mas - ter thou didst pass thy life on earth an - gel - i - c'lly.

which he then made man - i - fest to all the world.
car - eth for the whole world in His prov - i - dence.