February 7th
Our Righteous Father Parthenios, Bishop of Lampsacos Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried"

Byzantine Chant Tone 1
Special Melody: Thou art the joy

1) The boast of Hellespont and the bright light of Lampsakos, the morning star that shineth with divine signs and wonders, Partheinos the great doth now gather us all on his holy memorial, to celebrate with a spiritual festival,
   as we praise the Savor Christ with hymns.

2) Since thou, O blest one, didst bear God within thee from thy youth, with the great fire of thy prayers, thou didst utterly burn up the wicked ranks of demons and dead that was quickened, as well as the dry vineyard on which fell much rain, and the dye works restored by thee.
And over-turning the altars of idols, thou O sacred minister, marvelous are thy deeds!

3) The fish that swarm up proclaim eth thy wondrous miracle; so doth the fruitless field's fruit and the Lampsakos, the morning star that shineth with di-the august flock of Lampsakos.

Used with permission. Text & music copyright, 2005. Holy Transfiguration Monastery, Brookline, MA.