

June 11th

The Holy Apostle Barnabas

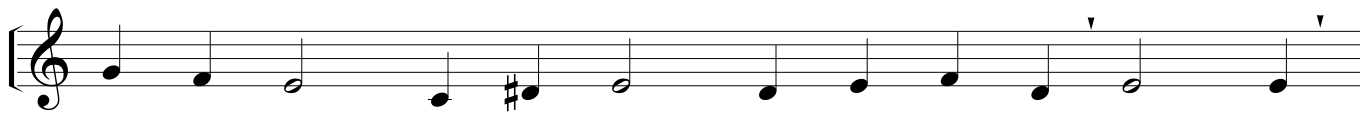

Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried"

Byzantine Chant Tone/Mode 4 Special Melody: Unto them that fear thee

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

1) Pow - er and un - con - quered might a - gainst the de - mons didst
2) Thou wast called the Son of — Con - so - la - tion right - ly and
3) As a well - tuned in - stru - ment moved by the work - ing and thou re - ceive, to drive off in the Name of Christ the fit - ting - ly; and be - cause thou didst im - i - tate the pow'r di - vine of the Spir - it, O Bar - na - bas, to chief prin - ci - pal - i - ties of the neth - er dark - ness, First Good - ness and the ways prop - er to God's na - ture, thee was en - trust - ed the call - ing of the na - tions

O all - famed A - pos - tle; and thou didst pass through - out the earth, thou, by shar - ing in His tran - scen - dent good - ness, didst be - come to the sav - ing knowl - edge of Christ; and by thy words and deeds, il - lu - mi - nat - ing it bright - ly as the sun. And a tru - ly good man, O bless - ed Bar - na - bas; and thou didst trans - fig - ure and fash - ion them a - new, en -

June 11 - The Holy Apostle Barnabas - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" - 2

as thou wast the first to come un - to the much - cel - e - with the good - ness of thy ways and with the pu - ri - ty
-light - 'ning them in ver - y truth thus to con - fess the Di -

-brat - ed Rome, thou didst preach to all men of Christ's of thy mind thou didst rouse up all faith - ful men
- vin - i - ty of Christ Je - sus, the Friend of man, G E sav - ing ad - vent, O Bar - na - bas.

to a - bide in the grace of God.
the di - vine Sav - ior of our souls.