1,2) In mercy, Thou, O Christ, didst form the first man, Adam, then Thyself Second Adam from a Virgin came forth; and then transformed, my Savior, upon the Mount of Tabor, Thou didst lay bare Thy dread Divinity.

3) The foremost of the Law and Grace were sore amazed as they beheld Thee transfigured on Mount Ta-bor in time past; and join-ing them, O Sav-ior, we rever-ence and wor-ship Thee with Thy Fa-ther and the Spir-it, O Christ.

4) Cre-a-tion is re-splen-dently bright at Thy Trans-

fig-u-ra-tion, O Christ, which on Ta-bor Thou didst show to Thy di-vine A-post-tles and E-li-as and Mos-es, when, as God, Thou didst in- ex-pressi-

-bly out-shine the sun.
