1) There is now the middle of those days which commence with Christ God's saving Rising and which are sealed by Pentecost, that divine day. Illuminated by both the feasts and joining both, it is radiant and in truth is now rendered majestic, showing and manifesting the presence of the great glory of the Ascension of our Master, Christ.

2) Zion heard and was glad when she received the good tidings of the Resurrection of Christ our God. As for her right faithful offspring, they rejoiced seeing Him also washing clean away, by the Spirit He gave to them, all the stain of Christ's murder. Wherefore, Zion prepareth to celebrate the joy-bestowing Midfestal day of both the feasts.
3) Now at hand is the ample pouring forth of the Holy Spirit on all men, as the Scripture saith; this is proclaimed by the advent of the midpoint of that time fixed by the sure and true promise Christ gave His followers after willingly dying, being buried, and rising, and which made known the manifestation of the Comforter.
