

Pentecostarion
Thursday of the 5th Week
Stichera on "O Lord, I have cried"

Byzantine Tone/Mode 4
Special Melody: Lord, when Thou didst ascend

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

E Un.

1) Come, see Him of Whom Mo - ses in the Law

E

wrote that in the last times He should come and be seen on earth, Je - sus, the prom-ised Mes - si - ah, Who in His mer - cy con -

C D E

- versed e - ven with me to - day as a mor - tal be -

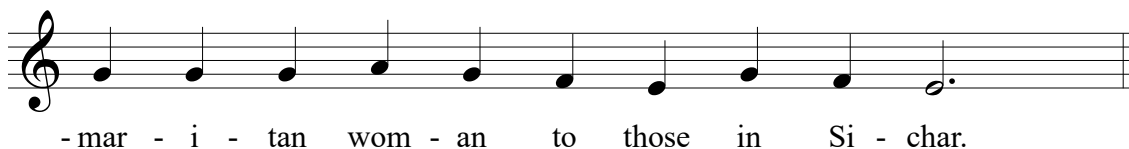

- side the well. This in truth is the Lord Christ, He Who ver - i - ly com - eth in - to the world, spake the Sa -

D E

- mar - i - tan wom - an to those in Si - char.

Pentecostarion - Thursday of the 5th Week - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" - 2

E Un.

2) When they drank the sweet wa - ter stream - ing forth from the wom - an's sweet - ly speak - ing mouth, then those in the town made haste to run to the foun - tain pour - ing forth with an a -

E

C D E

- bun - dance of clear - flow - ing streams and to look on the foun - tain - head ev - er gush - ing forth free - ly with a

D E

plen - ti - ful riv - er of might - y floods that bring re -

- fresh - ment to lan - guish - ing af - flict - ed souls.

Pentecostarion - Thursday of the 5th Week - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" - 3

3) When they saw Christ, the Well-spring of our life,
Who was one in form and one in nature with mortal men, all they that were in the city cried to the woman: No longer do we now believe on account of thy word alone; for we ourselves now know truly that this man is the whole world's deliverance, the everlasting
- last - ing sal - va - tion of the race of man.

Music adapted from St. Gregory Palamas Monastery, Perrysburg-Hayesville, OH. Copyright, 2000.

Translation taken from The Pentecostarion, copyright © 2014,

Holy Transfiguration Monastery, Brookline, MA, used with permission. All rights reserved.

Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America, Rev. 0, 5/23/2022, CAH