

Lenten Triodion
6th Wednesday of Lent

7th & 6th Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried"

Byzantine Chant Tone 5 Special Melody: Rejoice

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

7) When Thou, O Je - sus, went - est a - bout be - yond the Jor - dan in the flesh, Thou didst cry a - loud to those that were with Thee: Lo, Laz - a - rus our friend be - ing dead, e - ven now is giv - en o - ver to the grave.
For this, I am glad, My friends, for your sakes, that ye all might learn that I know all things, be - ing per - fect e - ter - nal God, though un - to your sight I ap - pear to be man a - lone.
Let us then go and quick - en him, that death clear - ly may per - ceive his own de - feat and de - struc - tion and the most per - fect of vic - to - ries that I shall ac - com - plish, while be - stow - ing My great mer - cy and peace up - on the world.

The musical score is written on ten staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It features various melodic ornaments (D, A, G) and phrasing slurs. The lyrics are in English and are aligned with the notes on the staves.

6) Tak - ing Mar - tha and Mar - y as guides and our ex - am - ple, let us send forth God - pleas - ing works to stand as our in - ter - ces - sors be - fore the Lord, that He might come to us, ye faith - ful, rais - ing up our mind which ter - ri - bly li - eth dead in the dark tomb of heed - less - ness, with - out per - cep - tion, feel - ing no fear of God at all, with no vi - tal force giv - ing life now, and let us cry: Lo, as Thou once didst raise up Thy friend Laz - a - rus for - mer - ly by Thy dread pow - er, so al - so do Thou, O Lord, make us all to live, O mer - ci - ful Sav - ior, while be - stow - ing Thy great mer - cy and peace up - on the world.
