

From the Horologion
Joy Of All That Sorrow Art Thou

Theotokion

(Sung on Monday & Wednesday nights in Great Compline, and in Small Paraklesis outside of the Dormition Fast.)

Byzantine Tone 2

Special Melody: When he took thee

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

Joy of all that sorrow art thou, and of the op - -pressed a pro - tect - ress, and nur - ture of all the poor, com - fort un - to thē es - tranged, a staff art thou of the blind, vis - i - ta - tion of all the sick, a shel - ter and suc - cor un - to those brought down by pain, help - er of or - phaned ones; Moth - er of God in the high - est art thou, O im - mac - u - late (if repeated)
Maid - en; has - ten, we be - seech thee, to re - deem thy slaves.
(final ending)
Maid - en; has - ten, we be - seech thee, to re - deem thy slaves.