

October 8th

Our Righteous Mother Pelagia the Penitent of Antioch

Exaposteilarion & Theotokion

Byzantine Mode 2
Special Melody: Upon that mount in Galilee

1) O Pel - a - gi - a praised of all, thy life was an ex -
2) De - liv - ered from thē an - cient curse through thy di - vine child -

-am - ple for them that live in sol - i - tude,
-bear - ing, with joy, we cry: Re - joice, to thee, and the com - plete cor - rec - tion of sin - ners ter - ri - bly like thē au - gust Arch - an - gel; and, O all - pure The - o - fal - len; for thou, up - on es - cap - ing the night of

- to - kos, we cry out in thanks - giv - ing: Re - joice thou, pas - sions, drew - est nigh Christ, the bright Sun of Glo - ry, O Ad - am's ran - som - ing; re - joice thou, Eve's de - liv - 'rance; re -

most au - gust, shin - ing forth re - splen - dent - ly
- joice, O thou through whom all our mor - tal race

October 8th - Righteous Mother Pelagia - Exaposteilarion & Theotokion - 2

7 G

'midst as - cet - ics, with whom we cel - e - brate_ thy feast, is_ made God - like; re - joice, through whom we all_ have found

8 1 E

which shin - eth bright_ as light - ning.

9 2 Un. rit. F G

the King - dom of the Heav - ens.