

November 13th

Our Father Among the Saints John Chrysostom

First Exaposteilarion

Byzantine Tone 3

Special Melody: While standing in the Temple's courts

1) The Church of Christ, O Chry - sos - tom, is made joy - ous and shin - eth with thy bright words of gold - en light, and the souls of the faith - ful are filled with joy in hon - or -

- ing thine all - ho - ly mem - o - ry. For thou, O Fa - ther, hast shone forth man - i - fest - ly to all men

as the guide to sal - va - tion, clear - ly pro - claim - ing re - pen - tance.

November 13th

Our Father Among the Saints John Chrysostom

Second Exaposteilarion & Theotokion

Byzantine Mode 2

Special Melody: Hearken, ye women

G F E

1) Let us all praise thē all - wise John, be - ing con - firmed in
2) O ho - ly Vir - gin past - re - proach, with cel - e - brat - ed

<sup>2</sup> G F E

faith - by him, that great sten - to - ri - an preach - er of true and Chry - sos - tom, en - treat thy Son, I be - seech thee, my Sov' - reign

<sup>3</sup> G

god - ly re - pen - tance, that treas - ure mak - ing pau - pers rich, Queen and my La - dy, that all who hymn thee be re - deemed

<sup>4</sup> F E G

that mouth and spokes - man of the Church wrought all of from all temp - ta - tions that can be, and that they

<sup>5</sup>

gold and el - o - quent, the clear and lu - cid ex - pound - er be found wor - thy of thē ev - er - last - ing - ly good things;

<sup>6</sup> 1. E

who ex - pli - cat - eth the Scrip - tures.

<sup>7</sup> 2. G Un. rit. F G

for thou canst do all thou wilt - est.