

April 10th
Martyrs Terence, Pompey, Maximos and Makarios of Carthage and Forty Companions
Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried"

Byzantine Mode 4
 Special Melody: As one valiant

Adapted by Fr. John El Massih

E Un.

1) With great pa-tience and for-ti-tude, griev-ous tor-ments of man - y kinds did a host of ath - letes of man - y names en - dure; and how in joy they have been trans - lat - ed hence to our on - ly God, to re - joice ex - ceed - ing - ly with the sa - cred ten thou-sand-fold hosts of bod - i - less; for the man - y ten thou - sands of the drag - on did they quell with bold de -
 - fi - ance by the Di - vine Spir - it's ho - ly grace.

April 10th - Martyrs Terence, Pompey, et al. - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" - 2

E Un.

2) Let us hon - or with sa - cred songs the right glo - ri - ous

E

Max - i - mus, Pom - pey the re - nowned, Ter - ence might - y and most great, with the di - vine Af - ri -

- ca - nus_ and Ma - ca - ri - us, wise in God;

let us praise them all in faith with the com - pa - ny of the rest of the mar - tyred Saints who have pur - chased the

G

King - dom in the heights with their own blood and now they

E

rev - el in glo - ry last - ing for ev - er - more.

April 10th - Martyrs Terence, Pompey, et al. - Stichera at "O Lord, I have cried" - 3

3) Nei-ther hun - ger nor suf - fer - ing, nei - ther per - il, nor life, nor death, O re - nowned con - fes - sors, a - -vailed to sep - a - rate you from the love of your

Mak - er;— hence ye now— have in - her - it - ed in - fin - ite de - light on high, ho - ly glad - ness that hath no end, nev - er - fail - ing joy, and the King - dom of Heav - en; where - fore, ask that we a - bun - dant - ly be grant - ed for - give - ness, mer - cy, and grace from God.